

Swastika Emblem Found

Special to The Times.

STEVESTON, B. C., June 12.—An Indian fisherman, whose family has moved into a shack vacated by a Japanese family removed by the British Columbia Security Commission, has reported finding a brass button or stud, bearing an embossed Swastika emblem, hidden away in the corner of a rubbish-littered shelf. It looks as though it might have been part of the regalia worn by Nazi sympathizers at secret society meetings.
