U. S. Tries Russian Dandelion Rubber

BURLINGTON, Vt., July 30.—(AP)—The University of Vermont has a garden where raindrops really bounce. It is an acre of dandelions—rubber-bearing dandelions from Russia—with which the University is experimenting. Russia, which this year reportedly has 2,000,000 acres of the plant, recently sent 500 pounds of seed by air to this country. The first crop is nearly ready for harvest.

Arkansas Negroes Delay Vote Attempt

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 30.—(AP)—Dr. J. M. Robinson, president of the Arkansas Negro Democratic Association, which organized the fruitless attempt of Negroes to participate in Tuesday's state-wide Democratic preferential primary, said today no effort would be made by association members to vote in the regular primary August 11. "They made their decision and made it stick," Robinson said. "We'll just let things cool off for a while until everybody gets level-headed again." He said all information on refusals of ballots to
