

PARENTS TO AID JAP AT TRIAL

United States Marshal Herbert W. Algeo has gone to the Japanese Relocation Camp at Tule Lake, Calif., to bring to Seattle Mr. and Mrs. Shungo Hirabayashi, parents of Gordon Kiyoshi Hirabayashi, who will go on trial Tuesday before United States District Judge Lloyd L. Black. His parents will be witnesses at the trial.

The 24-year-old Seattle Japanese was indicted on charges of violating a Japanese curfew act and with violating provisions of the civilian exclusion order. The indictment was filed May 28.

Hirabayashi has been in King County jail since May 16. His parents are being brought here under a court order.
