

F. R. WITHDRAWS FLYNN'S NAME

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—(AP)—President Roosevelt withdrew today the nomination of Edward J. Flynn to be United States minister to Australia.

The action came in the face of mounting Senate opposition threatening confirmation of the former national Democratic chairman, and marked the administration's first major rebuff in the new Congress.

Flynn had announced last night he was asking Mr. Roosevelt to withdraw the nomination to avoid a partisan political squabble in the Senate.

At Bottom of Nominations

The withdrawal message was at the bottom of a long list of nominations transmitted to the Senate. It merely said:

"Withdrawal. Edward J. Flynn, New York, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States of America to Australia, at the request of Mr. Flynn."

The President wrote Flynn:

"Dear Ed:

"Reluctantly I am complying with your request and have withdrawn your nomination from the Senate.

"I wish you would come to see me today or tomorrow.

"As ever yours,

"FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT."

Flynn, whose nomination had stirred up a bitter controversy on Capitol Hill, announced last night he was asking Mr. Roosevelt to withdraw the nomination and thus avoid a political scrap on the Senate floor.

Request of Flynn

The President received this letter from Flynn this morning:

"I am requesting you to withdraw my nomination as minister to Australia from the Senate. I am enclosing herewith a statement which I have issued which sets forth fully my reasons for asking you to take this action.

"I can't let this opportunity pass without telling you how thrilled I am and the whole country is at your brave and successful trip to Africa. It is a source of great comfort to all lovers of freedom throughout the whole world that you have returned safely."

Senator Bridges, Republican, New Hampshire, who led the Republican fight on the nominee, said Flynn's announcement was "a victory for integrity in government and decency in American diplomacy."

"The reason for the withdrawal is obvious," Bridges said in a statement. "The Senate would have refused to confirm Mr. Flynn's nomination by a decisive majority."

First Lady Defends Flynn

Flynn was described by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt at a New York meeting last night as the victim of an anti-administration campaign.

Asserting that Flynn "is a good man," the President's wife said: "I don't like the fact that we have political bosses in various communities. But a great deal was made of the paving-block thing. Mr. Flynn was attacked because he is part of the administration and they don't like the administration."

Police Officer Gets First Cash Of Fellowship

First proceeds of a $600 fellowship which will enable Patrolman Kenneth A. Dahl, of the Seattle Police Department, to attend an intensive four months' course in traffic control and accident prevention at Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., were officially presented to the Seattle police officer today.

The fellowship, known as the Kemper Fellowship, was awarded by the Kemper Foundation for Police Traffic Training, an organization sponsored by the Lumbermen's Mutual Casualty Company and the American Motorists' Insurance Company of Chicago. James S. Kemper, president of the two companies, is head of the foundation.

Dahl is one of eight municipal police officers of the United States who will attend the training course at Northwestern University's Traffic Institute. In addition, eight other officers were awarded $150 tuition scholarships by the Kemper Foundation. Patrolman Gordon McDougal of the Seattle Police Department was awarded one of these.

An advance on the $600 fellowship, a check for $80, was given to Patrolman Dahl today by R. L. Noble, local representative of the two insurance companies, in the presence of Chief of Police H. D. Kimsey.

Patrolman Dahl will pursue a course of studies similar to that just completed by Officer Phil Batson of the Seattle department, who recently was graduated from the Traffic Institute under a Kemper fellowship, and will return to his duties in Seattle this week.

The course is designed to provide qualified police officers with training to acquaint them thoroughly with fundamentals of modern traffic, enable them to plan effective traffic accident campaigns, and equip them to instruct other officers in various phases of police traffic work.

Dahl's fellowship is the third that has come to members of the Seattle Police Department.

MARINE RECRUITERS

Maj. Frank R. Armistead (left) today turned over duties of operating the Marine Corps recruiting office in Seattle to Lt. Alvin G. Bryan. Major Armistead, head of recruiting since 1939, is joining the staff of Col. Walter J. DeLong, state director of Selective Service, as Marine Corps liaison officer. Lieutenant Bryan is from Portland, Or., where he was in charge of marine recruiting five years.

Hold-Up Pair Robs 3 Men, Parades Them Along Street

Police were searching today for a 26-year-old shipyard worker and his partner after hearing a strange tale of kidnaping and robbery which took place yesterday morning in the central business district.

James H. Spencer, College Club bellboy, told police that when he returned to his room at the Y. M. C. A. about 12:45 Sunday morning he encountered an acquaintance, the shipyard worker, in the lobby.

They went to Spencer's room where they were joined by a friend of the shipyard worker. One of the two "friends," said Spencer, pressed a hard object against Spencer's back while the other took his wallet.

Parade Starts

Disappointed with the $6 obtained, the two hold-up men then marched Spencer downstairs, out through the lobby, and down to Third Avenue and Marion Street where they held up Joseph Litwin, 509 Columbia St., obtaining $23 and a new overcoat.

The group had now reached the proportions of a parade, Spencer said. At this intersection—it was now about 3:30 o'clock—a third pedestrian, Alfred Nelson, 3600 13th Ave. W., was held up and robbed of $35.

Club Disbanded

Nelson, unaware that he had joined a rapidly expanding club, told police that during the hold-up he observed two other men lurking in a doorway and presumed them to be other members of "the gang."

The other members—decidedly unwilling members—were Spencer and Litwin.

A few minutes after they had obtained Nelson's money, the two hold-up men disbanded the club by telling Nelson to "beat it" in a northerly direction, and advising Spencer and Litwin to "run like—" east on Columbia Street.

Police received the three reports separately, pieced together the story, and began a search for the two dues-collecting organizers.

James Hendry, 411 E. Madison St., was robbed of $8 and his wrist watch about 4 o'clock yesterday morning by two men who accosted him at Second Avenue and Columbia Street, he told police.

The disturbance was put down by military police.

F. R. PROMOTES CAPT. GILLETTE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Four Navy captains, including the man who was in charge of the Navy Yard at Pearl Harbor when the Japanese attacked there, were nominated by President Roosevelt today for promotion to rear admiral.

The Pearl Harbor Yard chief, upon whose shoulders fell responsibility for making initial repairs to vessels and installations damaged December 7, 1941, is Capt. Claude S. Gillette, whose usual residence was given as Crete, Neb. He is now assigned as manager of the Puget Sound Navy Yard.

The other three men nominated for promotion are Capt. Howard Filian Kingman, of Chevy Chase, Md., and Frank A. Braisted of Coronado, Calif., who have commands at sea, and Sherman S. Kennedy, of Saginaw, Mich., manager of the Navy Yard at New York City.

Demo Lends 7 Chairs To Horan Family

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Maryland hospitality has come to the rescue of Representative Horan, Republican, Washington, who solved the housing situation by purchasing a dwelling and then couldn't get his furniture delivered.

Commissioner William H. Prescott of Montgomery County, a Democrat, sent over seven chairs for the Horans to use until the furniture vans arrive. "Newcomers in our country have to be provided for," the commissioner explained.
