

JAPANESE DROP EFFORT TO BECOME CITIZENS

LOS ANGELES, Wednesday, June 12.
—Japanese immigrants who threatened a week ago to bring mandamus proceedings against the county clerk to compel him to issue first papers to Japanese applicants for citizenship in the United States have abandoned their purpose and announced yesterday that they will accept without further contest the ruling of the department of immigration that subjects of the Emperor of Japan must not be granted the privileges of citizenship.
