

Tulelake Project

Cost $6,975,419

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., May 4.

—(AP)—Construction cost of the Japanese relocation center at Tulelake, Calif., was $6,975,419. The Klamath Herald and News learned today from Representative Lowell Stockman.

E. M. Rowalt, acting director of the War Relocation Authority, told Stockman that operation costs from July 1, 1942, through March 31, 1943, totaled $4,947,398. He said that cost of operation is $457.44 per man year.