WOODY TO CHOOSE CITY CHAMPION

Old Woodenface will ring down the curtain on the 23rd annual Seattle Times-Park Board baseball pitching contest tomorrow evening when the three sectional champions face the "choosy" old umpire to decide which one is to wear the 1943 championship crown and carry off the first prize of a $25 war bond.

The finalists are Walt West, North District champion; Douglas Mar, Central District winner, and Dean Smith, South District champion.

They will compete at 6:15 o'clock, just before the baseball game between the Seattle Rainiers and Portland Beavers at Sick's Seattle Stadium.

After "Old Woody" has made his selection, James Gibbs, president of the Seattle Park Board, will present the champion with the $25 awarded by The Times.

All eliminated contestants have received free tickets to the contest and baseball game immediately after, to be used if escorted by an adult. In addition, the semi-finalists each received $2.50 in war stamps from The Times.

First District Of Legion Calls Spring Meeting

The First District of the American Legion will hold its annual spring conference Sunday at 3:30 o'clock at the Forty and Eight Veterans' Club.

Roy Edwards of Auburn, district vice commander, is unopposed for election as commander. A lively race is expected for the post of vice commander, however, with Charles A. Pierson, North Seattle; Norman Dickinson, past commander of Lake Washington Post, and Harold A. Burton, commander of Queen Anne Post, as candidates.

Anker Bjornstad, department commander; J. Jay Long, department adjutant, and K. Klemmetson, department service officer, will be guest speakers.

Twenty-five posts will be represented from the district, which covers all King County and is the largest in the state.

At 6:30 o'clock the Legion will join with its women's auxiliary for a dinner in the main dining room of the club. Principal dinner addresses will be by Commander Bjornstad and Mrs. James P. Murphy, Everett, state auxiliary president.

N. W. Methodists To Hear Langlie Tonight

CHEHALIS, June 10.—(AP)—Business sessions of the 1943 Pacific Northwest Methodist Conference opened here yesterday, with nearly 600 ministers and delegates in attendance, representing 344 churches in Washington and Northern Idaho.

The initial speaker was Bishop Bruce R. Baxter of Portland, Or. Also heard was Dr. R. Franklin Thompson, president of the College of Puget Sound. Dr. Roy L. Smith, editor of The Christian Advocate, will be heard, and Arthur B. Langlie will speak at a banquet.

MANY JAPS BALK AT LOW CAMP PAY

LOS ANGELES, June 10.—(AP)—The chief administrative officer of the Poston, Ariz., Japanese relocation center has told a Dies subcommittee that many of the evacuees won't do good work for the $19 a month the government pays them.

Others, said the officer, Augustus E. Emple, are doing satisfactory duty for which an outsider would receive $200 a month, but they are in the minority, and most are clerical workers trying to build an experience record to insure employment after the war.

"The attitude of many Japs in camp," Emple informed the committee headed by Representative Costello, Democrat, California, "is that there is no incentive, that the government placed them in camp against their will and that it is the duty of the government to furnish them food, shelter and clothing. We have tried to change that attitude."

Blind U. W. Grad Receives Honor

Robert B. Irwin, sightless executive director of the American Foundation for the Blind, New York City, and graduate of the University of Washington in 1906, yesterday received the honorary degree of doctor of laws from Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio.

The honor comes to Dr. Irwin, according to the citation, "in recognition of distinguished leadership in social, educational, and administrative service to the blind," which "has been a service local, national and international."

Dr. Irwin's brother, Arthur Irwin, and a sister, Mrs. Winifred Shock, are residents of Tonasket, Okanogan County. His mother resides in Tacoma and another sister, Mrs. Edna Davis, in Port Orchard.

Idaho Pair Slain in Bedroom

GRANGEVILLE, Idaho, June 10.—(AP)—A coroner's jury held yesterday that Clyde Morrow, a Boles stockman, and Mrs. Mabel Meade, whose bodies were found in the bedroom of an apartment Sunday night, met their deaths "from gunshot wounds inflicted by a person or persons unknown."

STROLLING AROUND TOWN

Radio Tokyo dropped its propaganda efforts long enough the other day to broadcast a bit of advice to persons who write to Americans held prisoner by the Japanese.

The Tokyo announcer suggested that more specific addresses be placed on letters to internees, pointing out that many letters never reach their destination because of faulty addresses.

Mrs. Elvada Brewster, 1201 Harbor Ave. S. W., who heard the short-wave broadcast, said the Japanese reported they had 700,000 pieces of mail for prisoners in their "dead-letter" office, 150,000 of them in the Tokyo office alone.

The announcer said the Japanese are holding 100,000 British and American nationals prisoner, Mrs. Brewster said. The Japanese government and postal authorities are not to blame for the situation, he broadcast, since the bulk of mail handling for the prisoners is done by "volunteers"—presumably, the prisoners themselves.

Mrs. Brewster makes a hobby of listening to short-wave foreign broadcasts. Reception of the daily morning Tokyo broadcast is as good as that of many Seattle stations, she said.

done," he was saying. "I had all the wash strung out on the line and—boom! She starts to rain. Can you beat it!"

A chance glance at the rotagraph section of The Seattle Sunday Times in a restaurant the other day brought happiness to two sisters.

In the top left photograph of the first page, showing soldiers of the 41st Division drinking tea in a Y. M. C. A. hut at Dobodura, New Guinea, they saw their brother, Nick Roberts, 20 years old, of Selkirk, who has been fighting in the South Pacific for many months. His mother, Mrs. Tom Smith, lives at Tacoma.

The sisters are Vi Roberts of Seattle and Mrs. Genevieve Broilo of Issaquah.

Nick has two other brothers in the Army, and three more in active war work. Frank Roberts is in service in Arizona, and Fred is stationed in Texas. Raleigh Roberts is employed at the Seattle-Tacoma Shipyard, Ed Roberts at the Lake Washington Shipyards and Byron at the Lake Union Shipyards. Other war workers in the family include the sister, Vi, and a brother-in-law at the Boeing Aircraft Company, and the young soldier's step-father at the Tacoma division of Sea-Tac.

Hard hit by the war, the University of Chattanooga choir now has only two regular members in the male section.

MAYOR ASKS CITY TO OBSERVE 4TH

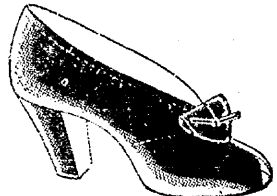

A proclamation calling upon all citizens to support Seattle's Fourth of July observance was issued yesterday by Mayor William F. Devin.

The mayor, designating Seattle Post No. 1, American Legion, as "the official agency to plan and execute appropriate ceremonies in celebration and commemoration of the signing of the Declaration of Independence," extended his congratulations to Lawrence M. Arnold, general chairman of the Fourth of July committee, and Frank E. Gilman, commander of the post, on plans already under way for the program.

Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox will be the city's guest for the Fourth of July observance. Knox will stop over in Seattle during a tour of West Coast naval stations and navy yards. He will attend the luncheon for distinguished guests at noon on July 5 and that afternoon deliver the main address at patriotic ceremonies to be held in Woodland Park.

Memorial services in Seattle churches on Sunday morning, July 4, will open the observance program. A baseball game at Sick's Seattle Stadium between all-star Army and Navy teams is scheduled for the afternoon. A military parade will be staged the morning of Monday, July 5.

Book 114 Years Overdue
DETROIT, June 10.—A book 114 years overdue has been returned anonymously to the Detroit Public Library. The book, Fenelon's "Adventures of Telemachus," written in French and English, was listed as missing in the November 12, 1829, issue of The Detroit Gazette. It might have cost the borrower more than $1,000—3 cents a day for 114 years.
