

Mrs. Stoeve Tells of Java At W. U. Club

By ALICE FREIN JOHNSON
Although Mrs. G. W. Stoeve, wife of Rear Admiral Stoeve, Royal Netherlands Navy, has been in this country more than a year, she made her first public talk in America last evening at the Women's University Club...

'BINGO' JOINS THE WAVES

Bingo, mascot of the Alpha Xi Delta Sorority house, just off the University of Washington campus, is being taught Navy lore by Seaman First Class Angeline Brown of the Waves. She and 25 other Waves stationed in the 13th Naval District have taken over the sorority house for an indefinite time...

Five Community Canning Centers To Open Monday

Equipment is available and arrangements are completed so that five community canning centers can be opened Monday if sufficient appointments are made. Mrs. Fred A. Fenton, heading this program for the Civilian War Commission's Consumers' Interest Division, reported today...

JAPS HAD DATA ON PARKER DAM

PARKER, Ariz., June 19.—(AP)—Testimony that Japanese engineers, shortly before Pearl Harbor, were given technical data on the $200,000,000 Colorado River aqueduct that furnishes water to Southern California, has been given to a Dies subcommittee...

Man, Woman Are Stabbed In Dark Hall

Police today were seeking an unidentified knife-wielder who attacked a Seattle man and woman in a dark apartment house hallway early this morning. The victims, Mrs. Naomi McKnight, 309 18th Ave. N., and Ed Mullen, 1515 Boren Ave., both suffered knife wounds...

SECOND HOUSTON TAKES TO WATER

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., June 19.—(AP)—A mighty new cruiser Houston slid down the ways of the Newport News Shipbuilding & Drydock Company here today, started on her way to avenge the sinking of another cruiser by that name in the naval sea battle with the Japanese fleet a year ago...

Hard Work Ahead

"I hope your women will work a little longer and a little harder to help millions of women who now yearn to work for their own countries and own families, but who are compelled to work as slaves for the enemy."

War Witness Tells of Raids

Bruce Thomas, war correspondent and lecturer, told an English-Speaking Union audience at the Women's University Club last evening what it means to be a Commando in this war, at the same time pleading with them to hold up the "dry end of the war, while the soldiers hold up the bloody end."

Icebox Cookies Always Good For Afternoon Snacks

For afternoon snacks, icebox cookies are always good to have on hand. Buttered Icebox Cookies: 1/2 cup shortening, 1 cup brown sugar, 1 egg, beaten, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 cups flour, 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup nuts, chopped.

Miss Teen

What to Write to Service Men

- 1. How the family is doing, everything possible to help in the war.
2. How anxious the family is for his return.
3. How well and busy the family is. Give details.
4. How the family is getting along financially.
5. What's doing in the community; news about friends, etc.

Born in Holland

Mrs. Stoeve, a slight woman with beautiful features, was born in Holland and attended a girls' college there. She and Admiral Stoeve have no children and she has no sorrow. They have spent 17 years in Java and consider it their home as much as The Netherlands.

War Witness Tells of Raids

Mr. Thomas found it disconcerting to come home in a convoy of which several ships were lost, and find "oblivion and business as usual."

Miss Janice Rumsey Becomes Bride Of Lt. Paul Monohon

The wedding was hurriedly planned this week on the young Coast Artillery officer's return from duty in Alaska. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Monohon, came west from Chatham, N. J., for the ceremony and are guests at the home of Mrs. Lewis Wallin, Sr.

Strikes Cost Lives

He threw the responsibility for some of the 42,000 deaths in actual combat to date at the foot of his audience, who, as Americans, tolerate strikes that cause delay of delivery of equipment. Time today means lives, he said, and in his opinion every time there is a strike the leader and men should be tried for treason, and if found guilty, shot.

Golden Wedding Celebration At Boydens' Home

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Boyden of Issaquah have received small pictures of the Boydens with this inscription on the back: "1893-June 21-1943. Fifty wonderful years. Mother and Dad Boyden."

LISTENING

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDermott are on a visit with their son, Pfc. Frank McDermott, Jr., home on furlough from Chico Army Field, California.

QUICKIE

Shrimp Creole in Rice Ring: Boiled Carrots, Romaine Lettuce with French Dressing, Fresh Fruit. *Melt 3 tablespoons shortening in frying pan. Add 1 1/2 cups chopped green pepper, 1/2 cup chopped onion, 1/2 cup diced celery, and 1/2 teaspoon minced garlic. Sauté for 10 minutes.

Budd Parsons Home on Leave From Africa

After seven and a half months of active service in the North African campaign, Lieut. Col. William Budd Parsons was at his home at 1550 Shendoanah Dr. today on a brief leave.

Union's Plea For Venue Shift Denied

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—(AP)—The International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, in the libel suit for $1,750,000 filed against it by the Gantner & Mattern Knitting Company, comes under the jurisdiction of California courts and must stand trial here, Superior Judge Elmer E. Robinson ruled yesterday.

Ration Calendar

RATION BOOK NO. 1 Stamp 13—Good for five pounds of sugar through August 15. Stamps 15 and 16—Good for five pounds of refined canning sugar through October 31.

Councilman Levine On Vice Committee

CITY COUNCILMAN David Levine will represent the City Council on Mayor William F. Devin's new vice-control committee, John E. Carroll, council president, announced yesterday.

Whiskey Barrels Replace River Buys

ST. LOUIS, June 19.—(AP)—Charred oak whiskey barrels soon will bob in the currents of the Mississippi River, put to a new wartime use by the Coast Guard.

Gasoline Ration Book

No 4 A coupons—Good for four gallons of gasoline each through July 21. Holders of B and C books may apply for renewal of books 30 days prior to expiration date of the book they are now using.

New Indian Agency Head

PORTLAND, Ore., June 19.—(AP)—George Lavatta, appointed yesterday superintendent of the Taholan Indian Agency at Hoquiam, Wash., has been with the Indian Service since 1926. Lavatta is a graduate of Carlisle Indian School.

Tomorrow's Tides

Table with 2 columns: Tide type and Time. Includes entries for Sunrise, Sunset, High tide, and Low tide.

Today's Tides

Table with 2 columns: Tide type and Time. Includes entries for Sunrise, Sunset, High tide, and Low tide.

Kaiser Yard Plans Sacramento Plant

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—Kaiser Richmond shipyard No. 4 will transfer part of its operations to Sacramento because of the shortages of housing and labor. Clay Bedford, general manager of the Richmond yards, told a congressional subcommittee yesterday.

DIAPER RASH

is soothed, cooled, relieved by Mezzana's formerly Mexican Hot Powder. It's an aspirin-gentle medicated powder.

DIAPER RASH

is soothed, cooled, relieved by Mezzana's formerly Mexican Hot Powder. It's an aspirin-gentle medicated powder.

DIAPER RASH

is soothed, cooled, relieved by Mezzana's formerly Mexican Hot Powder. It's an aspirin-gentle medicated powder.

Apprentices To Train for Duty Aboard Ships

Thirty-five apprentice seamen from the Pacific Northwest will leave Seattle tomorrow for Avalon, Catalina Island, Calif., where they will be trained for berths aboard ships serving in the war effort.

Postwar Use Of Ships Held Major Problem

PORTLAND, Ore., June 19.—(AP)—Disposition of merchant ships after the war constitutes one of the major national problems, Nelson A. Rockefeller, federal coordinator for inter-American affairs, said in an interview last night.

Rites Set For John Roberts, N. W. Riverman

PORTLAND, Ore., June 19.—(AP)—Funeral services were held yesterday for John H. Roberts, 78 years old, who refloated Columbia River Lightship No. 50 after she went aground on Peacock Spit at the turn of the century.

Nine Fishing Vessels Bring Halibut Here

Nine fishing vessels with a total of 184,000 pounds of halibut arrived in Seattle today from the deep-sea banks to sell their catches on the Seattle Fish Exchange at Pier 8. The fleet also brought a total of 3,100 pounds of cod.

Vitamin A Data Is Sent to Producers

For a number of months the Fish & Wildlife Service has collected information relative to the stocks and receipts of vitamin A livers and the stocks, production, and shipments of vitamin A in liver oils and concentrates. The information collected has been made available to federal agencies concerned with the vitamin A industry, and the data for the months from December to March have been issued to the industry in bulletin form.

Whiskey Barrels Replace River Buys

ST. LOUIS, June 19.—(AP)—Charred oak whiskey barrels soon will bob in the currents of the Mississippi River, put to a new wartime use by the Coast Guard.

Kaiser Yard Plans Sacramento Plant

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—Kaiser Richmond shipyard No. 4 will transfer part of its operations to Sacramento because of the shortages of housing and labor. Clay Bedford, general manager of the Richmond yards, told a congressional subcommittee yesterday.

DIAPER RASH

is soothed, cooled, relieved by Mezzana's formerly Mexican Hot Powder. It's an aspirin-gentle medicated powder.

Man, Woman Are Stabbed In Dark Hall

Police today were seeking an unidentified knife-wielder who attacked a Seattle man and woman in a dark apartment house hallway early this morning.

Apprentices To Train for Duty Aboard Ships

Thirty-five apprentice seamen from the Pacific Northwest will leave Seattle tomorrow for Avalon, Catalina Island, Calif., where they will be trained for berths aboard ships serving in the war effort.

Postwar Use Of Ships Held Major Problem

PORTLAND, Ore., June 19.—(AP)—Disposition of merchant ships after the war constitutes one of the major national problems, Nelson A. Rockefeller, federal coordinator for inter-American affairs, said in an interview last night.

Rites Set For John Roberts, N. W. Riverman

PORTLAND, Ore., June 19.—(AP)—Funeral services were held yesterday for John H. Roberts, 78 years old, who refloated Columbia River Lightship No. 50 after she went aground on Peacock Spit at the turn of the century.

Nine Fishing Vessels Bring Halibut Here

Nine fishing vessels with a total of 184,000 pounds of halibut arrived in Seattle today from the deep-sea banks to sell their catches on the Seattle Fish Exchange at Pier 8.

Vitamin A Data Is Sent to Producers

For a number of months the Fish & Wildlife Service has collected information relative to the stocks and receipts of vitamin A livers and the stocks, production, and shipments of vitamin A in liver oils and concentrates.

Whiskey Barrels Replace River Buys

ST. LOUIS, June 19.—(AP)—Charred oak whiskey barrels soon will bob in the currents of the Mississippi River, put to a new wartime use by the Coast Guard.

Kaiser Yard Plans Sacramento Plant

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—Kaiser Richmond shipyard No. 4 will transfer part of its operations to Sacramento because of the shortages of housing and labor.

Man, Woman Are Stabbed In Dark Hall

Police today were seeking an unidentified knife-wielder who attacked a Seattle man and woman in a dark apartment house hallway early this morning.

Apprentices To Train for Duty Aboard Ships

Thirty-five apprentice seamen from the Pacific Northwest will leave Seattle tomorrow for Avalon, Catalina Island, Calif., where they will be trained for berths aboard ships serving in the war effort.

Postwar Use Of Ships Held Major Problem

PORTLAND, Ore., June 19.—(AP)—Disposition of merchant ships after the war constitutes one of the major national problems, Nelson A. Rockefeller, federal coordinator for inter-American affairs, said in an interview last night.

Rites Set For John Roberts, N. W. Riverman

PORTLAND, Ore., June 19.—(AP)—Funeral services were held yesterday for John H. Roberts, 78 years old, who refloated Columbia River Lightship No. 50 after she went aground on Peacock Spit at the turn of the century.

Nine Fishing Vessels Bring Halibut Here

Nine fishing vessels with a total of 184,000 pounds of halibut arrived in Seattle today from the deep-sea banks to sell their catches on the Seattle Fish Exchange at Pier 8.

Vitamin A Data Is Sent to Producers

For a number of months the Fish & Wildlife Service has collected information relative to the stocks and receipts of vitamin A livers and the stocks, production, and shipments of vitamin A in liver oils and concentrates.

Whiskey Barrels Replace River Buys

ST. LOUIS, June 19.—(AP)—Charred oak whiskey barrels soon will bob in the currents of the Mississippi River, put to a new wartime use by the Coast Guard.

Kaiser Yard Plans Sacramento Plant

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—Kaiser Richmond shipyard No. 4 will transfer part of its operations to Sacramento because of the shortages of housing and labor.

Man, Woman Are Stabbed In Dark Hall

Police today were seeking an unidentified knife-wielder who attacked a Seattle man and woman in a dark apartment house hallway early this morning.

Apprentices To Train for Duty Aboard Ships

Thirty-five apprentice seamen from the Pacific Northwest will leave Seattle tomorrow for Avalon, Catalina Island, Calif., where they will be trained for berths aboard ships serving in the war effort.

Postwar Use Of Ships Held Major Problem

PORTLAND, Ore., June 19.—(AP)—Disposition of merchant ships after the war constitutes one of the major national problems, Nelson A. Rockefeller, federal coordinator for inter-American affairs, said in an interview last night.

Rites Set For John Roberts, N. W. Riverman

PORTLAND, Ore., June 19.—(AP)—Funeral services were held yesterday for John H. Roberts, 78 years old, who refloated Columbia River Lightship No. 50 after she went aground on Peacock Spit at the turn of the century.

Nine Fishing Vessels Bring Halibut Here

Nine fishing vessels with a total of 184,000 pounds of halibut arrived in Seattle today from the deep-sea banks to sell their catches on the Seattle Fish Exchange at Pier 8.

Vitamin A Data Is Sent to Producers

For a number of months the Fish & Wildlife Service has collected information relative to the stocks and receipts of vitamin A livers and the stocks, production, and shipments of vitamin A in liver oils and concentrates.

Whiskey Barrels Replace River Buys

ST. LOUIS, June 19.—(AP)—Charred oak whiskey barrels soon will bob in the currents of the Mississippi River, put to a new wartime use by the Coast Guard.

Kaiser Yard Plans Sacramento Plant

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—Kaiser Richmond shipyard No. 4 will transfer part of its operations to Sacramento because of the shortages of housing and labor.