Tigers Beat Senators In Morning Game, 10-3

BRINK CAPTURE DOUBLES CROWN

Special to The Times.

ELIZABETH, N. J., July 5.—A pair of Pacific Coast juniors, Jim Brink of Seattle and Bob Falkenburg of Hollywood, Calif., combined efforts here yesterday to hand Francisco Segura, Ecuadorean tennis expert, his first defeat of the 1943 tournament season.

The Advanced Hollywood is a Rainier by 54 holes of stroke play, indicated during the week-end that they are likely to be hot for the tournament.

Harry Givan, defending champion, carved out a round of 63—seven shots under par—at Broadmor Saturday. Harry Umbinetti, city champion, had a couple of not-conduct violation of the conduct of the cond much ammunition yesterday for their opponents. Brink and Falkenburg combined excellent court generalship with a variety of shots which had the Segura-Bender team fighting uphill most of the way. The cross shots and drop shots in the repertoire of the Western juniors raised havoc with their more experienced opponents. In singles Segura had Odman or the hip in the first set. The University of Washington player made a strong bid in the second set and led. 5-4. but Segura managed to

The deciding set was a runaway for the hard driving Segura at 6-1.
