

CHRISTMAS
GREETINGS

To Someone Mighty Nice

Dearest Ben;
It's a pleasure for me
Just to think about you
And all of the nice things
I've known you to do,
And this wish that I send
For your Christmas good cheer,
Is just one of many
I wish you all year.

With love,

Pris.

Dearest Ben;

In your few spare moments you dream of a future - of a bright tomorrow. I do. You, especially, have a right for these dreams and to see them fulfilled too. You are entitled to expect that your involvement is victory. hardships, uncertainty, etc. will bring you the fruits of peace.

I know that your mind goes home often too, as does mine, to the loved ones we left behind. If we were free to go on our way the footsteps of us all would turn homeward bound.

It is my prayer to you during the Christmas holidays & every day that the Lord keep your faith high, hearts brave, and hands strong and may your increasing good will & courage lead all nations to that brighter world.

With my sincerest Christmas wishes & a Happy New Year I am as always,

Pris.
