an Editorial

"30" FOR 1942

With this edition, The Tulcan Dispatch says farewell to the momentous year of 1942.

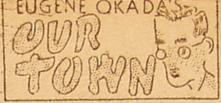

mentous one in many respects. In compliance with the military order of the Western Defense Carmand, we have moved out of curfamer residence in many localities and evacuated into assembly centers and thence to the temperary home in Tule Lake, under the paternal protection of the War Relocation Authority.

In this Thie Lake, we are now slowly energing out of the chaotic node of life of the carly picnoering days into an orderly disciplined corruntity of 15,000 evacuoes.

Gono are the days of incipient gangstorism and loose talks about things and people. To majority of the evacuous have come to see things in the light of reasons and common sense; of good taste and objectivity.

We are now locking forword to the glorious days in 1943, when many of as will be resettled on the outside. It is hoped that the Tule Lake avacues, who have learned the kind of give-and take life they were conditioned to live here, will manifest their Tulean spirit wherever they may be resettled.

IT WAS A BLACK

on Christmas in Tule Lake on Christmas eve as all the lights went out due to a short circuit or semething. The much desired snow came one day too late to make it a truly White Christmas.

Throughout the project turkey dinner and candies were onjoyed, while in some blocks Christmas programs were held. Dancing was enjoyed by those who were fortunate enough to obtain bids to any of the many private socials.

AFTER STUFFING

... curselves with turkey and all its trimmings, a group of us attended a surprise birthday party held at the famous Okole House where cakes were washed down with eider. A really impremptu affair a good time was had by all.

Incidentally, the Okole boys are a swell bunch of kids although their neighbors do complain about their every "once in a while".

FROM THERE WE

home of Miss Ef Ogawa for a card party where we somehow managed to gulp down delightful sandwiches, checalates, coffee, eggs, cakes, etc. (Burpexouse us). Highlight of the evening was when under the sheer weight of the hostess a box crumbled.

DANCES OF LATE
... have become to be more or less a farce. Dances used to be 10¢ a couple affairs but now it has reached a new high of 50¢
a couple. With everyone trying to outdo the other socials with respect to decorations and refreshments it is no wonder that the cests are so sky
high. Let's face reality and some down to our real
level of camp life.
IT'S OUT WPTH

RING OUT THE OLD--RING IN THE NEW--A Happy

New Year. May it be one of victory over the evil that shrouds the light all over the world. Imprinted on the mind for rememberance. It is May 15th. Morning sunrise pinkish against Mr. Rainier. Blue skies as far as the eye can see. The campus across 15th NE hums with early strollers to classes. Farewell to the old house that has been home. The clarion notes of chimes ringing out across the campus. Re-echoing back.

Hurried goodbyes to the Dean and friends. The silent trip through the valley. Camp Harmony. As easy as all that a step from one life to another.

imprints in de lible. Little things seen or heard. In future's crowded cities or in shepherd loneliness a blessing to solitude. The scene from castle rock. The symmetry of row on rows of barracks. Tulean sunsets. Hope and trust in things beautiful. Old friends and new friends. Old friends are true friends. New friends are soon old friends.

Dances. Some inconceivably beautiful. Always a swell partner. The jit, something new. The waltz, something tried and true.

A whirlwind bellowing dust across the flats. Scorching heat. Gool evenings under the stars.

The girl with twinkling eyes. A lift. The Dispatch. Whirl of the mimeo. Clatter of type-writers. Ink. The odd hours. The labor day parade. Flag dedication. Festival. Church services. Solemnity in belief. The army volunteers. Look out axis. But through it all. The American way of living. The firm conviction in complete victory and the peace that is to follow. --F.S.T.
