SCHOOLS WILL CLOSE DURING REGISTRATION

8000 EXPECTED TO SIGN-UP FOR CLEARANCE FOR ARMY, WAR WORKS

To facilitate the registration of all evacuees in this Project, all Tule Lake schools, except the nursery schools, will be closed for one week, perhaps longer, beginning Feb. 9.

This action was found necessary following the War Department's announcement that a combat team composed of Americans of Japanese ancestry is to be recruited for active service and that all other residents would be registered for clearance for work on the outside.

The Army team to conduct the registration arrived on the Project Saturday. This team will make a formal announcement today regarding its plans and aims.

The registration of approximately 8,000 people will entail an enormous amount of work and since this registration is to be completed within the shortest time it was found necessary to use all available personnel on the Project, including the teachers.

The final details of the registration program will appear in tomorrow's DISPATCH

RUMOR CLINIC

LOSS REIMBURSEMENT DENIED BY COVERLEY

There are rumors to the effect that if colonists remain in the relocation center and do not apply for leave that either the United States Government or the Japanese Government will reimburse them to the full extent of the value of the property they left behind upon evacuation. There is no truth to this rumor whatever, Harvey M. Coverley, project director, said today.

PLANNING BD. PROBES JACL

The City Planning Board held a hearing last week on the stand being taken by the JACL regarding the Army induction of nisei volunteers.

JACL leaders in the camp were on hand to clarify the matter discussed at the recent Salt Lake conference.

The Planning Board officials declared that they will make an announcement of their hearing soon "to clarify a lot of aspersions being cast on the JACL by some members of the Colony."

PERSONAL EXEMPTION FROM FEDERAL INCOME TAX EXPLAINED

Every individual is allowed a credit against his net income which varies with his domestic status, that is, whether he is (a) a single person, (b) a married person living with husband or wife, or (c) a head of family. This credit is known as personal exemption, and is shown on line 21 of the return Form 1040.

The personal exemption for a single person is $500 for the year; for a married person living with husband or wife, $1,200; and for a "head of family," $1,200. (Personal exemption as head of a family has no effect on liability to file a return.) For Federal income tax purposes, widows, widowers, divorcees, and married persons separated by mutual consent, as well as persons who have never been married, are classed as single persons.

A head of family is

PERSONAL INCOME TAX EXEMPTIONS LISTED

(Continued from Page 1) defined as "an individual who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood relationship, relationship by marriage or by adoption, and whose right to exercise family control and provide for these dependent individuals is based upon some moral or legal obligation." A single person, or a married person not living with husband or wife, may, therefore, enjoy a head of family exemption under certain conditions.

Taxpayers using a Simplified Return (which is permitted if the gross income for the year is $3,000 or less and derived solely from earnings from employment and or from dividends, interests, and annuities) obtain personal exemption based on their status as of July 1 of the year. Thus a taxpayer married and living with husband or wife on July 1 is entitled to $1,200 personal exemption on Form 1040A; if he were a widower on July 1, his exemption would be $500, irrespective of the date on which he became a widower. The amount of the exemption is not deductible from the income but is reflected in the amount of tax shown in the table on the reverse side of the form.

Taxpayers using return Form 1040 obtain personal exemptions proportionate with the number of months during which the particular status is held. Thus, for a person who married on July 1 (who was not a head of family prior to his marriage), the personal exemption would be $850 ($250 for the six months as a single man, plus $600 for the six months as a married man). In this example it is assumed that the wife has no income.

JOINT RETURNS

Married persons may, however, file joint returns, even though one has no income, and by filing a joint return a couple married during the year may obtain an exemption amounting to the exemption to which they would be entitled for the period of married status, plus the amount of their individual exemptions prior to their marriage. In the example given the total exemption in a joint return would be $1,100 ($250 for each spouse for six months plus $600 for six months married status.)

If a husband and wife living together both have income and file separate returns on Form 1040, the personal exemption applicable to a married person may be taken in the return of either or divided between them in any way as they may agree, but the total personal exemption taken in the two separate returns may not exceed $1,200.

SHOWER FACILITIES finally came to Fire House #1 and 18 year old Taky Kimura, youngest fireman in the F.D., bore the brunt of celebrations. Kimura, an ace hosebreaker of Platoon "C", was first man to "go under"; but he went in quite aided and unorthodoxly--fully clothed. Taky came through with flying colors!..?

THIS PORTRAIT was relayed from Hollister, Idaho. The brothers, erstwhile Tulsons, drifted from one farm to another, after the ranch season, looking for a place to stay over the slack period. They asked to help out with the farm chores in return for board and room. Frustrations numbered many times until finally a certain Mr. Green asked the brothers in. Now, after a month--they are treated as one of the family and fully entrusted. Just recently the boys found out that Mr. Green is a '18 veteran and his only son was lostat Pearl Harbor.

REMEMBER SEATTLE'S Mike of Swing? The band sensation, heralded in three states after their blitz tour in the Spring of '41. English sections played up details of the receptions, take offs; and Nichi Boi's carried a fine two column glamour print of the whole band. The high powered one night stands up and down the coast were greeted with enthusiasm, hitherto unknown in Nisei circles. Throngs came from miles around and jam packed entrances, hours before opening time. Yo scribe saw them...through a low or eighth section of a hotly contested window.

Reports from the Twin Falls area are that the aggregation now re-christened "Harmonaires", continue to blaze on in such popularity that many officers from schools and other groups were turned down because of full bookings --months in advance.

SIGN REMOVING IS PROHIBITED

The Internal Security department issued a warning this week to truck drivers who have picked up various signs placed throughout the Project and tacked them on their vehicles.

"These signs are placed throughout the Project for a definite purpose and they should not be disturbed," Peter Krustevich stated. "Much work has been expended in making the signs and they are difficult to replace."
