Vol. 5 No. 12 Saturday, Apr. 3, 1943
TULSA DISPATCH DAILY

Cuts Former Red Tape To Resettle

A sweeping change in the leave clearance program which will permit evacuees to leave for outside employment without waiting for their leave clearance or indefinite leave was announced by Lorne Huycke, leave officer today.

In order to be eligible to go out under this new procedure, outside employment offer must be submitted through the WRA office.

Optometric Clinic Note

Appointments for the optometric clinic at the Base Hospital are being cancelled until further notice, Dr. Reece Pedicord stated today.

Lack of equipment necessitates the closing. However, adjustments and services will still be available.

1. You must have registered for leave clearance in the recent registration program.
2. Your application will not be approved if you are a citizen and you qualified your answer to Question 28 on form DSS 304-A or form WRA 126 revised.
3. If you are an alien and you qualified your answer to the printed or alternate Question 28 on Form WRA 127 revised, the application will not be approved.
4. If you answered "no" to Question 28 on Form DSS 304-A, or Form WRA 126 revised, the application will not be approved.

Further information on the new ruling will be issued soon by Lorne Huycke.

THE OTHER SIDE

BY KEN HAYASHI

WHEN a group of smartly uniformed women marched into the Dispatch office in the company of John D. Cook and introduced themselves it could do nothing else but bring back the days following the outbreak of the war.

The girls were ambulance corps members of the Klamath County Civilian Defense.

It was but a couple days after Pearl Harbor that some 20 of us Japanese Americans volunteered our services to Civilian Defense.

We remember that day vividly. The big Tacoma Armory was filled with aroused Caucasian Americans and when we marched in many eyes were focused on us. It was a funny feeling. We, with Japanese faces but American hearts wanting to do our share for our Country. There were some whispers as we threaded our way thru the crowd...but we looked them in the eye...our hearts unafraid...knowing that we had come to serve as had other A-

Many Of Racial Differences Found In United States Army

Gudni Asgeirsson, a native of Iceland, is now in the United States Army. A strong desire to avenge the sufferings inflicted by the Nazis on his Norwegian relatives brought him to the United States, since his own country does not maintain a standing army. It was the influx of Norwegian refugees into his country, he said, that made him realize the menace of Nazi brutality.

"All of us," he told an officer at the Army's Reception Center at New Cumberland, Pennsylvania, "all of us were stricken with horror and a quickly rising anger. Many of us left immediately for America, knowing that our only way to halt the ways of Nazi Bestiality was through the forces of the United Nations."

So Gudni Asgeirsson left the fishing fleet he and his father ran, and came to America to join in the fight for freedom.

This young man of Iceland is typical of the thousands of men of all races who pass through the Army's Reception Centers every day. When the Reception Center at New Cumberland looked over its records for the past month, it found many other evidences of the fact that America's strength is in its racial diversity.

There was Frank Strassfeld, a young man of twenty-two, who was born in Poland. His family had always produced men of peace and religion, never a soldier. But in 1935 Frank was a student in Germany. He saw how the Nazis treat minorities: he witnessed the purging of the Jews.

Strassfeld had been classified 4-D by his draft board because he was a rabbi. But he asked that his classification be changed to 1-A. He did not ask for a chaplain's rating because, he explained, he felt that he was too young to counsel older men.

Then there is Low Ding Chinese. He was born in Kongmoon near Canton, China, where his mother still lives. Canton is occupied by the Japanese. Low didn't have to go into the Army. He was rejected twice for physical disabilities. So he underwent a serious operation at his own expense in order to be classified as 1-A. Low wanted to do mericans.

—THANK YOU—

We were congratulated by the understanding commanding officers of the Defense Corps. It was decided that we form an all-Japanese unit of the Civilian Defense Corps.

Then we swung into action. Drills were held, first aid classes set up and other forms of service were performed. The work was done enthusiastically. The defense corps was co-ordinated with the JACL further broadening its scope of service.

We received national and local publicity. Japanese Americans were proving by action on the home front that they were behind their Country's war effort.

So we served until evacuation.

Those snappy blue uniforms on the ladies brought back sharp memories. We hope that in a very near day we will once more be able to serve...this time on the fighting front or in a similar active capacity.

Recent Departures From City Listed

Among the twelve colonists leaving the Project Wednesday, Mar. 31, were Martha and Donald Munakata, #1806-A, for Camp Savage, Minnesota; Helen Nakamura, #1815-A, Yukiko Korekiyo, #5305-E, and Kaname Hayashi, #417-B, for Chicago; Jean Nagata, #2514-A, for Cleveland, Ohio; and Toru Hamaguchi, #5702-D, Mitchell, South Dakota.

Others included: Moto-ko and Emyko Kumamoto, #1818-E, for Camp Savage; Grace Asab, #2016-B, Philadelphia, Penn.; Irene S. Matsumoto, #4514-A, Mitchell, South Dakota; and Yuri Kobukata, #1805-A, for Minneapolis, Minnesota.

U.S. Soldiers Are Of Many Races

Stanley Lacey, 18, was sent to Philadelphia relatives by his English parents two and a half years ago so that he might be spared the London blitz. But as soon as he was of eligible age, he enlisted to become an aerial navigator. Remembering the German bombings of London, Stanley wants most of all to navigate an American bomber over Berlin.

At one Army air field in Texas the sons of fifteen United Nations were counted among the men training to beat the Axis. They came from Canada and Dutch-Sumatra, from Poland and Jugoslavia and Czechoslovakia, from Mexico and Russia. Gathered together in one army, they demonstrate the strength of America, which is a United Nations within itself.

13 TULEANS ARE SENTENCED TO ISOLATION CAMP IN UTAH

Kentaro Taketsui: Charged with two counts: (1) failing to register, (2) conspiracy to impede registration. Pled guilty on both counts. Mr. Fleming recommended 90 days on each count, to run concurrently.

Masumoto, Umezu, Harada, Kaida, Marubashi, Tanimoto, Kamimori, and Imahara: Charged with the same two counts; pleaded guilty on the first count, not guilty on the second count. A sentence of 90 days was recommended. Trials for hearings to be held on the second count was set for day in April.

Yashio Yamato: Charges with the same two counts; pleaded not guilty on both counts. Trial set for April 16, at 2 p.m. with the recommendation that Yamato be held in custody until the trial.

Hiroshi Kamiya: Pled guilty to both counts. Sentence recommended, 90 days for each count, to run concurrently.

Mr. Coverley had submitted records on these men to Director Dillon S. Myer in Washington for his action, following trials on Wednesday. However, before Mr. Coverley had time to act on Mr. Fleming's recommendations, Director Myer determined that these men were so dangerous to the security of the Project that he ordered them removed to the permanent WRA Isolation Center at Moab, Utah. They left the Project immediately after the last trial, at 8:15 p.m., Wednesday evening.

Mr. Coverley commuted the sentences of each man to the time spent at the Klamath and Alturas jails and the CCC Isolation Camp, dismissing the outstanding charges against them on this Project and ordered their immediate removal to Moab.

Charges against other persons who failed to register will be prosecuted in the usual way at this Project, subject to further orders from Washington.

On Wednesday morning, Mar. 31, Project Director Harvey M. Coverley tried Kaname Mitani, Eisaku Yoshida, and Shigeki Abe on two counts-- (1) failing to register, (2) conspiracy to impede registration.

Kaname Mitani: Pled guilty on count one, not guilty on count 2. He was sentenced to 60 days in prison from Mar. 10, date of arrest. Trial for hearing of count 2 was set for April 14, 10 a.m.

Eisaku Yoshida: Charged with same two counts; pleaded not guilty on both. Trial was set on hearing on April 13, 2 p.m. Pending trial, Yoshida will be confined to the Klamath Falls jail.

Shigeki Abe: Charged with same two counts, pleaded not guilty on both. Count one was dismissed by Mr. Coverley as Abe was in custody on the day he was to register. Trial for the hearing of count 2 was set for April 13, at 10 a.m. Mr. Abe will remain in the Klamath County Jail pending trial.

Sociologists Leave Colony Thursday

Frank Miyamoto and his wife, Michiko, and Tamotsu Shibutani and his wife, Tomiko, left the Project Thursday, April 1. The former left for a social research conference in Salt Lake City, while the latter departed to study on a research Fellowship at the University of Chicago. Mrs. Shibutani will be employed at the Concord House, a cooperative organization.

HONORABLE MENTIONS: Mas Ikemoto, Cubs; George Imamura, Red Devils; Akira Nakagawa, Midgets.

The vote of the Central League managers placed two players from the league champion Block 29ers, Sac'to Cubs, Placer Midgets, and Block 30 and one each from the Red Devils and the Zeros on the official all-opponent all-star first and second teams.

At the first string forward positions, two of the leagues high scorers were named--Dick Hitomi, who paced the Cubs into second place in the standings, and Butch Nagawawa, versatile spark-plug of the champs.

A close race was seen for the selection of the best center with Akira Kubo, league's leading scorer with 67 points, of the Midgets winning out over 29's Jiro Higaki. Kubo was outstanding both defensively and offensively for his third-place team.

Shobo Fujii, clever Red Devil ball-handler, and Shiro Takemoto of the Block 35' Cubs were the top choices for the first team guard posts.

Central All-Stars will meet the Block 29 five today.

KIDS TO HOLD TRACK MEET

MARATHON PLANNED FOR OLDER YOUTHS

Boys between the ages of 7 to 12 will hold a track meet on Saturday, April 18, according to an announcement by the Recreation Department.

All interested persons should contact their Ward Boys Club so that a team can be formed. Anyone who is not a member of the club will be eligible to join and compete in the meet.

There will be the usual number of events including dashes, relays, medley relays, football throw, softball throw, broad jump, etc.

Competitors are urged to start training now for the various events.

Also on the same day a gigantic marathon is being planned for the older youths. The course that is tentatively set will find the race starting by the outdoor stage and from there it will go to the top of Castle Rock and back again.

Six-man relay teams will compete in the marathon.

Further details will be released soon for all activities on that day.

平林安井両氏の裁判進行状態は各方面から注目目的になつてゐます。三月十一日のオレゴニアン紙上は次の如く報じてゐる。

「日系市民を太平洋岸より返還せしめたることは彼等と同等の裁判なしに投獄したのも同様であり且つ米國憲法違反であると冒頭して『憲法裁判所』シヤゲW.デンマート氏は次の如く日系市民の權利擁護に務めらるる。

「吾々は立退命令に依りて度敵国人に対する如く日系市民を取扱はば彼等と同等の権利を以て打撃を蒙らねばならず。日本市民を陰險であるといふのは九十一年前捕虜の如く排戦的態度にて日本に用老留鳥を迫つたペリーを陰險だといふに等しい。

の住家より追出し收容所に入れられた。ドイツ語すらオランダ人の男子は受け容れられた。拘らざる米國では女子は至るまで殘留の後念を與へてゐない。これはいかほど極論した。尚シヤゲはこのケースは全裁判所を判決することが出まると主張し大審院廻附に反対した。かゝる判決は倍り愈々大審院に廻らる。キヤンテン販賣
