

EDUCATIONAL PAMPHLET DEALS WITH RELOCATION

DISTRIBUTED OVER COUNTRY

To bring the public's attention to the relocation program of evacuees, an educational pamphlet titled "Relocating a People", which shows pictures of colonists engaged in various type of work, will be distributed by the WRA to various organizations throughout the country.

The United States Employment office will be one of the main places where the pamphlet will be sent.

The pamphlet gives an outline of the evacuee's background and points out that relocation of these people into normal communities where they may enjoy the full benefits of American justice is a national problem deserving the thoughtful consideration of every person who believes in American principles.

Through this means it is hoped that

'CLAMBAKE' IS CANCELLED

Great regret was expressed by the committee in making the move.

DAYS SET FOR APT. CHANGES

Housing department announced that colonists may change apartments only on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Also arrangements for changing apartments can only be made on those two days the American public will become cognizant of the problems faced by evacuees who want to return to normal community life.

TAYLOR WRITES ABOUT EVACUEES

Writing in the April issue of the Atlantic Monthly, George Taylor, in an article "Japanese in our Midst", stated that the consequences of not dealing with evacuees in relocation centers intelligently and justly are serious.

The Japanese government, he stated, is watching the centers to make propaganda capital of any mistakes the U.S. may make.

Cover Design Deadline Near

The Chinese, too, who are similar to the Japanese are keeping an eye open and any unwise move may discourage their efforts in behalf of a democratic world. Describing the camp life, he revealed that uncertainty, (con't on page 2)

GUEST EDITORIAL

PREPARE YOURSELF...

There is no question that many men and women in this Project are looking forward to their future both immediate and after the war. There never was a time when young people, with most of their lives ahead of them, should give careful and sound consideration as to what vocation they aim to follow in the future and with this thought in mind should take inventory of their position on the project.

Is the position that you now hold developing your talents and is it a continuation both of your education and employment prior to evacuation?

A great many young people in this Project accept work other than that which they expected, as the Placement office has made every effort to urge evacuees to improve their position so they are prepared either immediately on indefinite leave or for the eventual post-war period, to follow their desired vocation.

We do not urge or recommend transferring from one job to another just to make a change; however, if you are not satisfied with the present position is not in line with your ambitions, you are urged to confer with me at the Placement office at your leisure.

Those evacuees who are not at present working but would like special training in a particular vocation on the project should make their wishes known to the Placement office so that when the opportunity presents itself they may be placed on a training basis.

Many Jobs Are Open In Oregon-Idaho Sector Now

There are jobs available in the Boise Valley, including the Nampa, Caldwell section in Idaho and the Nyssa, Ontario section in Oregon. The recruiting office at Warehouse #316 has offers of employment ranging from two (2) to twenty-five (25) workers to work in sugar beets.

There are also all kinds of other row crops such as potatoes, onions, lettuce, all kinds of vegetable seed, peas, corn and fruit in this area.

One typical contract is an offer by John Batt at Wilder, Idaho who wants 20 workers. He will house laborers in the Wilder F.S.A. camp and transport them to and from work. Mr. Batt has 1,320 acres in sugar beets and the most of the balance in lettuce, onions, and potatoes.

The sugar company and the United States Employment Service can furnish jobs for several hundred people in this area.

AMALGAMATED SEEKS LABOR

The Amalgamated acts as a recruiting agent for individual farmers located in the vicinity of the F.S.A. camps. These farmers provide transportation to and from work. Amalgamated transports the colonists from the Project to the specified camp and back to Newell when the seasonal work is completed without charge.

Placement on individual jobs will be handled by U.S. Employment Service representatives located in each F.S.A. Camp. When no beet work is offered, other types of work are generally available in the territory.

The recent "freeze" order by the War Manpower Commission does not affect seasonal workers in any way, as the U.S. Employment Service is established to place workers when and where they are needed. Workers are not obligated to remain on one farm, one county, or state, although when moving from one county or state to another, the approval of the U.S. Employment Service is necessary.

MORE ON WISE RELOCATION

He points out the demoralizing influences of camp life. Family ties are broken up because elders are no longer bread winners and young ones do not have the old feeling of dependency.

A wise resettlement program, not rushed and not en masse, is the only solution he said to the evacuee problem which will bring a measure of approbation from others and will be a boon to the evacuees.

Sportraits

No doubt Casaba fans are wondering which ward champ will cop the city title. Saturday will be the day set for fans to witness the ward playoffs.

Leading the Block 12 aggregation, Ward 4 champs will be sharpshooting Bob Hayashida, reliable Morio Hada, and Champ Shiohama in the back court. They should give the Block 29 hoopsters a run-for-the-money. 29 boys are led by the ever dependable Sloppy Oshita. He will be supported by fast Greg Nagasawa of the Miks, Ray Orite of the Class B Champ Wakaba Zephyrs, and Sharkey Fukuda and Mas Keiunji both Class B all-stars. This game should be a well-contested affair. 12 will have to hustle and utilize everything they have to take the measure of the 29'ers.

A decisive victory could be accomplished by Block 22 over the smaller Block 16. Gremlins will be paced by the smooth and speedy dual combination of Tak Tsutsui and Kint Nishimura, incidentally these two, former Miks and Zephyr stars, are rated the deadliest point-getters in the league. Carrying the burden for the 16's will be diminutives, Seibo Fujii and Kunio Otani.

We see in the Block 46 and 49 tangle a walk away affair. The 46 quintet, features lanky, lackadaisical floor worker George Goto. 46'ers should get an easy nod over the less favored 49 boys paced by Mike and Sam Fujishin.

Whatever the odds are let us play these games in a sportsmanlike manner.

It takes more to be a good loser than a good winner.

• CORRECTION •

Yoshiaki Hada made the spectacular last minute spurt for Block 9 in the recently held marathon, instead of Eddie Yumikura as previously published by the Dispatch on April 20 issue.

Play-Off Winners Will Draw

The three winners of the Saturday, April 24, ward championship playoffs are requested to send their team representative to 1808 for the drawing on the same night at 7:30 p.m.

This drawing will be for the elimination game to take place the following day, April 25. At which time the court drawing will also be held.

Team that pulls a bye will automatically go into the finals which will be played on Saturday, May 1, in front of the outdoor stage.
