

SEVERAL TRAFFIC CASES BROUGHT TO TRIAL HERE

Drivers Are Convicted

For violations of the new traffic regulations, several boys were recently tried by the special traffic detail of the warden system whose chief function is to reduce the number of traffic violations now being committed on the Project.

For exceeding the speed limit and other acts constituting reckless driving, a truck driver was found guilty and as his sentence he was deprived of all his WRA allotments for five days.

The case of five boys riding in the cab of a truck was heard, but no action was taken. During the cold winter months, five in a cab was permissible but the ruling was recently cancelled. Violators will be punished from now on.

Another defendant found guilty of speeding and cutting across a firebreak was sentenced

ANYONE LOSE BALL EQUIPMENT?

FOUND:

...one hardball and two gloves in firebreak between Blocks 16 and 27. Owner may claim for them at #2819-B, Mr. Horimoto.

The Management Committee of the Co-op has recommended to the Board of Directors the adoption of a new system of keeping patronage records. The board, after due deliberation, has approved the recommendation.

The Management Committee found that this new system will not only be convenient for the patrons, but that it will save considerable expense for the Co-op.

Further announcements will be made upon further developments.

TWO RELOCATES

Relocation is taking its toll in the Co-op. Two members of the Board of Directors tendered their resignation, preparatory to leaving the Project. They are C. Taketa of Ward VI and R. Kitade of Ward V.

MAY GET LICENSE

After several months of negotiation, it has been revealed that blocked nationals who desire to join the local Co-op may now apply for a license. The application should be made with Executive Secretary, T. Kawasaki at 719-A.

Special Sewing Classes Held

Special attention is called to Miss Chiyo Sato's adult sewing class held at 7208-A on Mondays and Fridays from 9-11:15 a.m. and 1:45 to 4 p.m. These classes have been set up especially for people who wish to begin work before the regular adult sewing term ends. This course offers excellent opportunities for those interested in sewing but who are unable to attend regularly.

Miss Sato will assist with designing as well as sewing. Students on any level from beginning to advanced will be welcomed. Individual attention will be given. For further information consult Miss Sato personally.

Remember the old song, "Jimmy Had a Nickel"? Well, that's going to be very true on the Saturday after the Carnival.

Jimmy had a nickel. But your pennies and nickels have never bought more fun and pleasure than they will at the 40 or 50 concessions in the Year Book Carnival and dance on April 30! So save your money and wait. If you have scrip try to sell it to your teachers for cash, since the concessions cannot accept scrip.

SEE YOU AT THE CARNIVAL!
