

PLAN JAPANESE BATHS

Plans for a Japanese bath is being completed by a committee composed of Hiroshi Tsuda, Tom Uyeno and Yukio Kumamoto, according to the Council. As soon as they are completed and approved by the regional office, they will be installed throughout the City.

The tubs will be 4 foot wide, 6 foot long and 2½ foot deep.

PLAN HUGE FIELD DAY

Recreational summer schools will fling their doors open tomorrow 8:30 a.m. to stage a Field Day at the central firebreak. Attempt will be made to show how pupils have advanced in their educational activities.

Residents will be entertained by the children with a well-rounded program continuing until 11 a.m. Each of the seven Ward schools will vie for top honors in spelling bee, tumbling, relay and obstacle races, and softball games.

General chairman is Isaac Igarashi, assisted by Shig Okada, program; Hannah Miyai, singing; Mary Iseri, awards; Amy Masuda and Dorothy Keikoan, track and field events; and Martha Ishikawa, publicity.

CITY'S FINEST TO VIE FOR HONORS

The oratorical contest to be held on the 27th and 28th of this month promises to bring together some of the Colony's finest speakers, it was announced by the committee. Five experienced orators of the high school group will compete on the 27th; nine seasoned college-age linguists will speak for top honors on the 28th.

The contest rules are as follows: delivery will count 40%, contents 30%, and organization 30%.

RESIDENTS WARNED AGAINST SCORPION

Scorpion, deadly insect known as "sasori" in Japanese, was found near the Fire Station #2 by a warden Tuesday afternoon. Residents, especially children, are warned against attempting to catch them.

Although not fatal, scorpion bites are extremely painful. When bitten, the victim is advised to suck the affected part immediately and apply ammonia.

As the picture shows, the insect about 3 inches long, has a pair of large nipping claws and a long jointed tail terminating with a venomous sting.

Speeches are limited to 10 minutes and all manuscript copies must be in to the oratorical committee for approval by Mon.

The committee is composed of Ted Shigeno, Perry Saito, Wilbur Kikuchi, and Frank Hijikata.

PORTRAIT STUDIO POSSIBILITY STUDIED

Establishment of a photographic studio here is being studied by the Western Defense Command, according to word received by the Administration from Regional Director, E. R. Fryer.

SEARCH FOR BEAUTY:

QUEEN TO REIGN OVER LABOR DAY FESTIVITIES

A center-wide search for a queen and six attendants to reign over the Labor Day festivities is being sponsored by the Recreational department. Stressing popularity rather than beauty, the following rules governing the contest were released by Bette Sato and Mas Yamasaki, co-chairmen for the event:

- (1) Contestants must be 16 years or over;
- (2) Single
- (3) Candidates must represent some organization or be sponsored by a group of 50 whose signatures must be obtained;
- (4) Entries must be in by Aug. 31, 5 p.m. at the Recreational center;
- (5) In the case of a large number of contestants, semi-finals will be held on Sept. 1.

Votes may be cast by all center residents. Applications and ballots will be available at the Recreation office, #1808.

All organizations, clubs, work groups, or groups of individuals are urged to enter their choice in the contest. An all-out call for cooperation was issued by Bette Sato.

CONSTRUCTION PLANS PROGRESS RAPIDLY

The completion dead-line-date for the furniture factory is scheduled for the middle part of next month, Construction department officials indicated. Slated for operation before difficult outdoor weather moves in, the factory will provide indoor labor for colony workers.

ROUNER TO FILL FACTORY POSITION

F.H. Rouner, superintendent of the Redwood Manufacturers Co., arrived here from Pittsburgh, Calif. Wednesday.

Rouner is to be superintendent of the furniture factory here.

"There are many chances for men to learn a good trade," stated Rouner. "From what I have seen, this is a fine training school."

By the end of this week, partitioning of class room barracks in various blocks in the city will be completed. School furniture are also being turned out in sizeable numbers in preparation for the coming fall term classes.

The permanent newspaper office at #1608, has been under process of remodeling with the installation of "sheet-rock" partitions, walls and ceilings.

Y.W. HEAD TO HELP G.R.

To work with Elaine Ishikawa on a program for the newly-organized Girls' Reserve, Essie L. Maguire, executive secretary of the San Francisco Y.W.C.A., arrived here Tuesday.

Commenting upon the purposes of the organization, Miss Maguire stated that besides getting the girls better acquainted with one another, the Girls' Reserve will aid in developing individual interests and skills to make the members able to be of service to this Community.

THE ROVING REPORTER:

"SHOULD MARRIAGES BE ENCOURAGED HERE?"

Inner sanctums of 16 Tuleans of various age groups were vigorously invaded with THE DISPATCH man-on-the-street's query on:

"SHOULD MARRIAGES BE ENCOURAGED IN THE COLONY?"

Following are choice bits gleaned from answers and comments by these individuals:

TERRY WATANABE... "Marriages will take a normal course regardless of circumstances."

AT A BRIDGE GAME... Three emphatic feminine "Nos!" Reason: Conditions here aren't normal, therefore a marriage taken place under such a state--will not be conventional."

JOHN ITO... "Should be encouraged because of prevalent moral conditions."

SADAME KAGETA... "No! The future should be of first consideration."

MRS. MARY TEFMT... "Conditions here shouldn't interfere with a normal course of marriage."

BILL KAWADA... "Adversities and uncertainties faced here, should not encourage marriages." FLO ABE... "Aspects of the future should guide marriages."

GEORGE MAKINOTO, MINORU INOUE, and TORU FUKUCHI... (after pondering for a full 20 minutes) "Depends on person!"

RAY MAKINOTO... "Artificialities are discouraged in camp. Literally speaking--a great opportunity!"

A.R.N.... "Should be encouraged to raise the morale."

HISAYE NISHIJIMA... "Marriage is a customary event. The surrounding state-of-affairs should not be of any influence."

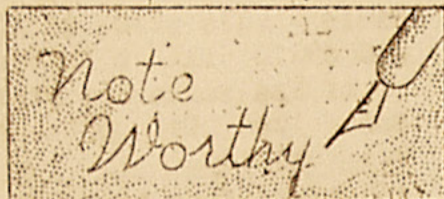

"M.H.", Beauty salon... "The future holds more than the present. Marriages should be considered accordingly."

NATIONAL LEAGUE

YOGORES OVER PEE WEEES

Playing before a huge crowd, the undefeated Yogores retained their status and practically cinched the National softball title by nosing out the Pee Wees in the last half of the final inning.

Going into the last inning one run behind, with two outs and two men on base, the Pee Wee strategists walked a dangerous batter on four pitched balls only to have the next batter rap out a sharp single to left field to score the tying and winning runs.

Yogores' next and final opponent will be the Hospital contingent. The game will be played this Saturday night at field 5.
