

500 Leave for Beets this week

Sugar beet workers continued to pour out of this Center as two groups totaling 101 volunteers left this City Monday for work in Idaho and Montana.

Forty-nine Tuleans bid their friends and relatives goodbye as they departed Monday morning for Payette County in Idaho. In the evening 52 anxious residents of this Center clambered aboard three busses for work in Hamilton Valley county in Montana.

Asked as to their future plans, Paul Hayashi, 20-year-old mess sergeant in the CCC's and until recently chief cook at the Mess hall #70, stated that he was tickled to be leaving for Montana, but his ultimate objective was combat duty in the United States armed forces. Added Hayashi, "If my country cannot use me, I will volunteer my services to the Russian army." Hayashi's companions, Jack Namba and Hideo Yokobe, all from Tacoma, Wash., replied, "They were looking forward to their new lives and were glad that they could be of some service to the great Allied cause."

Roughly 50 to 100 volunteers will be leaving daily all this week for the sugar beet fields of Idaho, Oregon and Montana. Sam Friedman, Housing department head, said that around 500 workers will have left for the beet fields by the end of this week.

COUNCIL HOLDS BEST MEETING

In one of the best meetings ever held since its inception here, the City Council Tuesday night heard reports and explanations by Dr. Carson of the Base hospital and discussed basic matters regarding welfare of the entire Colony. A detailed report in tomorrow's issue.

Fifty workers for the packing shed and twenty men for the warehouse night crew are needed immediately. Applications may be filed at any of the Placement offices.

PROBATION SETUP ORGANIZED HERE

Probation and parole sections have been set-up in the internal security division, Harold S. Jacoby, chief of internal security, revealed. Heading the respective sections are Fred Nomura and Frank Sasaki.

It will be the duties of the probation officer to have supervision of all individuals released on probation by the Judicial Committee of the City Council. Any individual considered likely to become a behavior problem may be under the informal supervision of the officer.

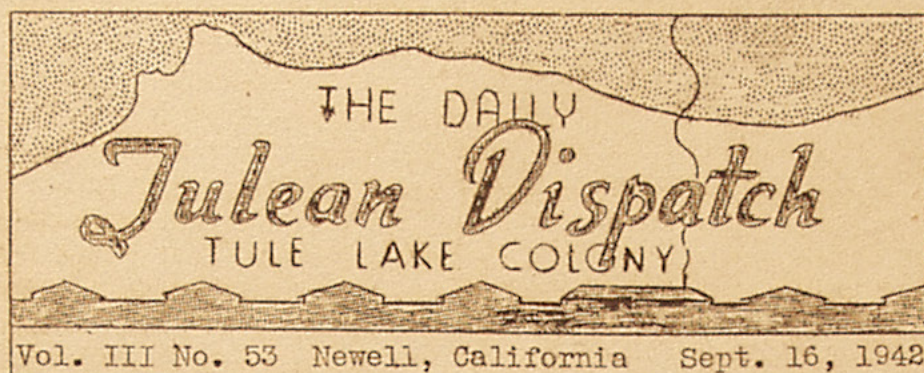

The parole officer's duties include supervision over persons released on parole from Federal internment camps.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Due to mechanical difficulties involved in publishing 4,500 copies of 4-page DAILY TULEAN DISPATCH on mimeo-duplicators, this newspaper has set the deadline at noon of the preceding day of publication for all news stories and announcements. THE DISPATCH asks the cooperation of all concerned to keep strictly within this editorial rule. To appreciate the difficulties we are facing, THE DISPATCH invites those in responsible positions, or anyone interested, to visit the newspaper office at #1608 and see how the mimeographed sheet is being produced every day.

STUDENTS MAY WORK 4 HOURS

Students attending high school may work four hours a day after-school, it was declared by Director Shirrell before the City Council meeting Tuesday night.

They will be taken off the work list, however, when they begin to show falling down on their studies.

INDIAN SUMMER MERCURY IS STEADY

After a sharp preview of the forthcoming Tule Lake winter season, old man weather has comfortably settled back into an easy stretch of climate known as "Indian Summer".

Mercury in the thermometer hovers between 75 and 85 degrees during midday and is sandwiched between cool, crisp mornings and rather chilly evenings.

Psychological effect of the prevailing ideal climatic condition is that of physical and mental well-being of the colonists. This near perfect weather is expected to last until the first part of October.

While the City residents are urged to enjoy the current good weather, they are also warned to prepare for a severe sub-zero winter that is reputed to set in rapidly.

HILARIOUS ANTICS OF "NUTHOUSEGANG" KEEP TULEANS SCREAMING FOR MORE

Tule Lake's "Hellzapoppin'" crew who make themselves known to appreciative Tulean audiences as the "International Nut-House Gang" packs the punch and humor that sends them rolling-in-the-aisles. Genial Maestro Roy Nikaido is the versatile impresario who directs the ten men company. Miki Tanaka and George Yamamoto's clarinet-guitar combination does a smooth job of "riding in and out" of the acts with their scintillating music. Other vaudeville aspirants who presents impressions in professional style are Frank Nakaoki, Harvey Ida, Mas Ishikawa, Tony Hirakawa, Ben Sugimura and the Imai Brothers, George and Bacon.

Rolllicking sketches, with the color of true international flavor, are injected into the show. Dishes Sheng-hai, as they say: Why yazza boze! Even a southern tobacco auctioneer finds his way into the show with a brisk round of oscillating tongue clashing.

Good humor is the main ingredient of the show-design, with terrific amounts of ad-libbing, sending the company over the top. They work together... hard...because they like the game.

EMERICK ISHIKAWA, 125 POUNDS WEIGHT LIFTING CHAMPION, HAS A LONG STRING OF WORLD RECORDS

A new world's champion was born in good natured and modest Emerick Ishikawa when the books of the Hawaiian A.A.U. tourney were closed. It was by lifting 620 pounds in three different styles that Ishikawa, a Hawaiian-born Japanese and Tule Lake resident, carved his name among sports immortals and best ever in bantam division weight lifting.

In the world's record effort; clean and jerk accounted for 250 pounds; military press, 180; and snatch, 190. He also bettered the world record unofficially in extra attempts by a total of 40 pounds.

Official recognition of Ishikawa's record mark was announced by Dietrich Workman, chairman of the National Athletic association. The record surpassed the 10-year-old mark of 615 pounds held by a German lifter.

A trip to compete in the 1942 National tournament was offered to Ishikawa by Victor Tanny, Los Angeles director of weightlifting. Travel restrictions imposed by the Western Defense Command prevented him from participating. The winner of the contest lifted only 565 pounds in the three events, however.

It was in the 1938 Hawaiian tournament when he won his first championship and established a new Island record. In the following four straight years he walked off with titles preceding his world record effort.

Along his road to glory, Emerick was crowned the 126 pound wrestling champion of the Islands. His instructor was Don Gunderson, 1932 Olympic Game wrestling finalist, at the Palama House Settlement Gymnasium.

The Other Side..

WE

looked at them as they excitedly poured into three busses. They were the vanguard of workers leaving for the sugar beet fields in Utah.

Most of them like our kid brother were still in their teens or early twenties. Many of them were going out on their own for the first time. Naturally they were excited.

We hope that the world they are going out to conquer will not be too disappointing.

the world is on fire but tomorrow, what?

These questions are eternally raging through the minds of our thinking nisei. Too many of them have already given up. By giving up we mean they have lost faith in both God and Democracy.

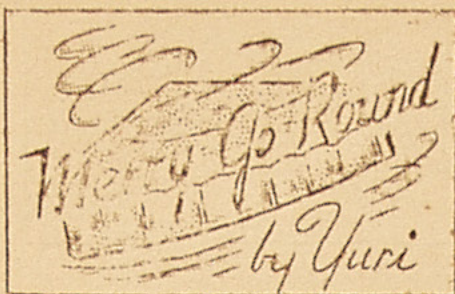

So it is encouraging to know that some of our youths are still hanging tough on these two faiths.

For the coming YPOC one of the features will be a "Youth Speaks" hour. The main topic to be aired is "Faith in Our Crisis."

WHEN

we hear the rumble of exhaust gas flowing out of the dual pipes on that V-8 touring here -- we dream of our drolled up 36 ....We wonder when we are going to return to that world..Why in the he.. does a man feel so good when a strange pretty face breaks out into a devastating smile and then falls into the depths of depression when he turns around and finds that the smiles were not for him. We know him only casually but he said that he would do anything he could for us...Today, in front of the canteen, we were fumbling for a cig and he saw me throw the package away. When he walked out of the canteen he thrust a carton of smokes in our arms and turned away.

EVACUEE WORKERS FACE NO OPPOSITION IN IDAHO

Mr. Larson, representative of the Amalgamated Sugar Company of Ogden, Utah, recruiting beet workers for Washington county, Idaho, stated Monday that there was no opposition of local residents there against workers coming in.

Restrictions are limited to mining and they are made by the evacuees themselves. Those who evacuated voluntarily are making their homes there. Many have rented houses in town, he said.

The whole program is a step by step procedure and in time it is possible that other fields of employment may be opened, Larson stated.

COOP MAN BACK FROM PARLEY

After attending a co-op conference at Poston center which was attended by representatives from other relocation center, as well as several co-op representatives from New York, Don Elbersen and Kendall Smith of the Community Enterprises returned Sunday.

The important conclusion reached was that the Japanese people have given a tentative approval to the institution of co-operative enterprises.

Representatives from an eastern co-op wholesale, Co-op league, Credit Union league, and Rochdale Institute also attended the conference.

NO C.O.D. ISSUES ON SAT. P. M.

No C.O.D. or insured packages are issued on Saturday afternoons as the W.R.A. post office is closed, thus preventing inspection of packages.

W.R.A. post office hours are 8 to 12 noon and 1:15 to 5:15 p.m. every week-day except Saturday when it is open only from 8-12 noon. U.S. post office is open from 8-5 including noon hour every day except Sunday and holidays.

REPATRIATES FIND NO OUTSIDE JOBS

Colonists who have signed up for repatriations will not be able to go out to work in beet fields or any outside jobs, it was made clear today by Frank Smith, chief of Housing and Employment division. For further information contact officials at #801-D, and not in the Administration building.

The following worries gave the Project Director reason for head aches yesterday:

1. ATTITUDE OF WORKERS

...Many workers anxious for jobs, when placed on them resent any directions or criticism of their work. Certainly we cannot recommend such people for leave to work for a private employer now, or cannot give a good recommendation on them after the war is over.

2. LABOR AGITATORS

...We have in our midst several labor agitators whose conduct is dangerously near subversive. It should be borne in mind that no one at Tule Lake has to work but this means also that those who wish to work must not be interfered with. Such interference or pressure cannot be tolerated in this colony.

3. IGNORANCE OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE

...I am concerned that so few people whose command of English is slight take advantage of the numerous classes offered to learn English. Employment opportunities after the war will be scarce and for non-English speaking people jobs will probably not exist.

FIRE STATION #3

GRIZZLIES NOD KENT, 9-8

Unleashing a big 5 run rally in the last half of the fourth inning, the Grizzlies nosed out the strong Kent softballers in a Junior league game.

Although chucker Mnekawa of the victorious Grizzlies pitched steady two hit ball, numerous errors by his teammates accounted for the Kent tallies.

Kent's big surge came in the lucky third when a series of costly errors enabled them to push across 5 of their runs.

Griz's rally started with walks issued to Yamasaki and Yoshioka followed by hits by the bats of Tada and Fukushima.
