

CANTEEN NO. 3 ROBBED, VALUABLE GOODS STOLEN

Canteen No. 3 at #4108 was robbed Wednesday evening in the second major community store theft to occur here, it was discovered Thursday morning.

Two possible entrants through which the thief may have gained access to the store are being considered. Hinges of a side door were jimmyed and the door found open by Arthur T. Ono, a store clerk, when arriving for work on Thursday morning.

The other possibility considered is a side window. The glass was broken and by unlatching the lock the thief may have entered.

Some articles of value were removed, while other goods were ransacked and scattered. Investigations immediately have begun Thursday morning by the Wardens' office.

This marks the second incident at Canteen No. 3 with fire destroying their original building. Canteen No. 4, near the Administration building, suffered the first major robbery on Aug. 28. The thief is still at large.

Those going now will have first opportunity to be permanently located if they so desire.

Human Touch Shown Departing Workers

"Now don't cry, Amy, I'll be back."

"Take care of yourself."

"I will. You'll wait for me, won't you?"

In these warm September mornings, contingent after contingent of young men are surrounded daily in front of THE DISPATCH office by sweethearts, mothers, and a multitude of well wishers.

Leaving little responsibilities behind, impetuous young boys fresh out of high school, and bachelors bored with months of inactivity are pushing off to the beet fields of Utah and Idaho. There is an exhilaration of freedom, adventure, and excitement.

"Don't spend your money foolishly..." a worried mother cautions a boy with a string of admonishments.

"Aw mom! I'm big enough to take care of myself." Sun beats down in increasing intensity as the men grow restless. Bus drivers receive last minute instruction as hefty wardens are lending hand with the baggages. DISPATCH reporters and curious passers-by join the milling crowd wondering if any of their friends are departing.

Finally, the busses gun their motors and roar down the road kicking up a cloud of white dust. Fluttering hands and parting sheets of goodbye are but momentary. Only the echoes of the shouting crowd prevail in the dust. J.N.

WEST SAC'TO WINS

Taking an early lead, the strong West Sacramento nine coasted to victory over the weakened Bellevue squad, 11-4, to tie Marysville for the American League championship.

The two teams will meet sometime next week for the title.

Art Kozono, West Sacramento ace, held the hard-hitting Bellevue down to 9 hits, in contrast to their 20 hit barrage against the Rooks last week.

Combining hits with errors, the winners scored in the first 5 innings, while holding their rivals to no runs. Bellevue finally broke their string of goose-eggs by pushing across a run in the lucky seventh and scored another in the ninth.

Hitomi, West Sacramento catcher and Honky Shimogaki, Bellevue third sacker, were the batting stars of the game with 3 hits each.

West Sacramento's outer defense composed of Nishikubo, Kimoto and Ogata covered the outfield brilliantly.
