

Three More Meetings Scheduled by Army Team

The second of a series of meetings to introduce War Department's program will be held at 1:30 p.m. today, Feb. 9, at mess hall 21-27 for residents of blocks 14, 15, 21, 22 and 28. Lieut. Ray McDaniel, head of a team of Army representatives, will be the principal speaker.

Another meeting is scheduled at 7:30 p.m. tonight, Feb. 9, at mess hall 8-30 for residents of blocks 1, 2, 6, 7, 8 and 9. The last address will be delivered to residents of blocks 12, 17, 20, 27 at 9 a.m., Wednesday, Feb. 10, at mess hall 17-27.

Residents should make every effort to attend these meetings. Joe Carroll, housing and employment chief, said. Workers may obtain excused absence. High school students 17 years of age and above are especially urged to be present. Registration will take place this week-end.

Stay Away From Range Firing Area!

With range firing scheduled from Feb. 1-26 (Saturdays and Sundays excluded), residents were warned by Carl R. Green, 1st Lieut., CMP, to remain clear of the area beginning 1,500 yards north of guard tower post no. 9 (between blocks 28 and 29), and extending 6,000 yards in a north by north westerly direction.

State Gambling Laws to Be Enforced Here

Provisions of the Wyoming criminal law are applicable in the Heart Mountain center and the gambling and other laws will be strictly enforced here, Guy Robertson, project director, warned.

In this state gambling is punishable by imprisonment of not more than one year or a fine of not more than a thousand dollars or both.

Any resident who participates in any gambling games for money, checks, credit or other representatives of value is subject to arrest and conviction under this law.

Funeral for Former Mt. View Matron Today
