

Registration of Male Residents Starts Tuesday

In accordance with instructions of the War Relocation Authority in Washington, registration of all residents of the center, 17 years of age and over, will begin at 8:30 a.m., Tuesday, Feb. 16, at 29-23-N, Guy Robertson, project director, announced.

The first registration will be for all males 17 and over, both citizens and non-citizens. The women will be registered immediately on completion of the male registration.

It is intended, if possible, to register two blocks a day, starting with block 30 in the morning and block 29 in the afternoon. Blocks 24 and 25 will be registered on Wednesday, Feb. 17, and blocks 22 and 23 on Thursday, Feb. 18, in the mornings and afternoons, respectively.

Registrations in other blocks will be announced as the program progresses. Residents of these blocks are to appear early to avoid hasty last minute crowding. Residents who are employed may be granted excused absence from their work for the period of time necessary and on the day for which their block is registered.

Block managers will be present to assist the residents of their respective blocks in completing the questionnaire.

Completed Forms 26 (individual record) will be referred to in completing the questionnaire, but each person should have ready the name, occupation AND ADDRESSES of at least five persons for references other than relatives or former employers, preferably persons residents in areas where you formerly lived. In addition to the registering staff, there will be WRA administrative officials present at all times to aid residents who may need any assistance.

In order that this may be done in an expeditious and efficient manner and also that these forms may be sent to Washington for the purpose of securing leave clearance, cooperation of the residents was requested by Robertson.

Other instructions were released as follows:

1. Any citizen registering may cross out the identification mark--"Selective Service System"--on form 304a.

2. Any citizen or non-citizen may strike out the word "Application" on Form 126a or 126b and substitute the word "Registration."

3. No person who completes these forms will be required to join the army or to leave the center for purposes of relocation. Quote from R. M. Rowalt's letter of instruction--"Please make it clear we are not going to force people to relocate when they do not want to be relocated."

4. Persons desiring repatriation need not complete the forms. Persons desiring expatriation need not sign if they make definite signed statement to that effect.

January Checks Here for Activities 200 and 300

January pay checks for public works and war works divisions, activities 200 and 300, are ready for distribution today at the block administrators' offices, Victor J. Ryan, budget and finance officer, announced.

Payment for January unemployment compensation is being made at the time-keeper's desk in the administration building.

Rules Governing Construction and Use of Materials

There has apparently been a misunderstanding by the residents and appointed personnel of Heart Mountain as to regulations governing construction and alteration of buildings of all kinds, according to Guy Robertson, project director.

The War Production Board requires that all construction and alteration projects requiring the use of new initial materials (lumber, nails, screws, etc.) be approved in advance by WPB.

The War Relocation Authority in Washington must also approve all building construction and alterations. These are regulations which we cannot evade; they must be strictly obeyed.

Regulations governing construction and the use of building materials:

1. No construction of any kind can be undertaken on this project without first obtaining written authorization from the engineering and maintenance division. This cancels all previous verbal arrangements of any kind whatsoever.
2. All construction now under way for which written authority has not been granted must be suspended until such time as written authority from the engineering and maintenance department is obtained.
3. Materials cannot be used for construction of any kind without authority of the engineering and maintenance division. This applies to both new and used materials.
4. Materials now at jobs which have been delivered there without written authority of the engineering and maintenance division must be immediately returned to the warehouse.
5. Labor cannot be used on jobs not properly authorized in writing by the engineering and maintenance division. Workmen engaged on any such unauthorized jobs must immediately be transferred to other work which has been properly authorized. Failure to comply with this regulation will necessitate termination of all workers engaged in unauthorized construction.
6. Materials delivered for certain jobs must not be removed from that job. In case any such material is taken from jobs without authority, the loss of such material will be reported to the police department whose duty it will be to recover the material and bring charges against those taking the same.

Since all project property is owned by the United States government any misappropriation of supplies or materials necessarily falls under the administration of federal rules and regulations and prosecution must result.
