WAC Recruiting to Start Soon

Further information on the procedures for enlistment of women citizens of the United States of Japanese ancestry in the WAC has been provided by the War Department according to information received at Heart Mountain today.

Enlistment will be accepted subject to the same rules and regulations that apply to other women. Women accepted by the WAC will be for general service and not for a special Japanese American Unit.

The physical standards will be same as for all other persons except that the minimum allowable height will be 57 inches and the minimum weight 95 pounds. Applicants must be proficient in the English language, both written and spoken. Enlistment will begin at the same time that general enlistment in the WAC is authorized, approximately September 1, 1943. Persons not in Relocation Centers may submit their applications at any WAC recruiting station in the usual manner. In Relocation Centers applications will be accepted by personnel coming into centers for this purpose from the appropriate Army Service Commands. The personnel coming into the Relocation Centers to accept applications will bring the necessary application forms and general descriptive material about the WAC.

Seek 225 Women, 10 Men for Cannery Work

To recruit 225 women and 10 men for work in nine canning companies in Utah, David A. Johnston will be in the outside employment office today and tomorrow, according to William B. MacFarlane, employment officer. Work is offered on either piece basis or hourly rate and will last approximately until October 20.

Man Dies From Injuries Sustained in Accident

Wake services for Yoshiyo Hiyama, 61, of 9-18-E, who died Saturday night from a fractured skull sustained in an accident that noon, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at 8-25. Funeral rites are scheduled for 2 p.m. Wednesday at the same locale. The Rev. Chikara Aso will officiate at both services.

General Information

Starting August 29, visiting of the poultry and hog projects will be permitted (without passes) from 1-3:30 p.m., according to Marcus Campbell, chief internal security officer. The gate near the hospital guard tower will be used as exit.

Clothing allowance checks for June have arrived, according to James M. Grace, fiscal accountant, and will be placed in the mail today.

Winners of the Fourth of July field day who have not received their certificates, are asked by Tats Aoki, athletic director, to call for them at community activities headquarters.

Residents carrying fire insurance policies are asked to report any change of address to S. Nagameri, 30-17-B, or at the community enterprises office.

The following persons are asked to call at the main post office for unclaimed mail: Kazuo Yamaguchi, Hank Umada, Mr. Ohara (from McGee, Ark.), Mrs. Kikuko Nakamura, B. Fujii and Mrs. T. Yoshizaki.

A correction was made by Edward Teare, principal of the elementary school, in the article on school zones appearing in the last issue of The Sentinel. All children living in blocks 1 to 15 are to attend the block 7 school while those residing in blocks 17 to 30 will go to the block 25 school. There is to be no exception to this rule, Teare said.

Clubs and individuals holding wienie bakes at the swimming hole are responsible for the clean-up, Tats Aoki, supervisor of athletics, announced. Unless this ruling is complied with, community activities will ask the fire department to discontinue issuing permits, Aoki warned.

THANK YOU

On behalf of the Zebra baseball team, may I take this means to sincerely thank all those supporters who have made the trip to Gila, Arizona possible. The team left for the inter-center games on Friday, August 20.
