Recruiting of 300 Beet Workers to Begin September 10

R.K. Bischoff and Otto E. Frisbie, representatives of the Great Western Sugar company at Lovell, announced here Wednesday that they will begin recruitment for approximately 300 beet workers about September 10. Men will be needed for all types of beet work, they said. Beet topping this year is paying the highest wages in the history of the industry with the scale now set at $1.25 per ton for the first twelve and $1.15 per ton beyond.

Public Announcements Can Be Made at Two Theatres

Public announcements, particularly of an emergency nature, now can be made nightly except on Sundays and Mondays, at the two center theatres, Marlin T. Kurts, director of community activities, reported. Announcements of general nature, for instance: the changing of athletic or social schedules, can be submitted to community activities headquarters, 16-North, where they will be handled by Dave Yamakawa or Clarence Matsumura. Announcements of an official nature and involving policy or management of the center must be cleared by Vaughn Mochau, reports officer.

General Information

New contracts of the Paul Labor camp in Rupert, Idaho, which is seeking 200 workers, are now available at the outside employment office. As few changes have been made, those who signed the original contracts should call at the outside employment office and sign the new ones. Any others interested are asked to contact the outside employment office.

There is still a need for female workers in the Utah canneries. David R. Johnston, representative, will be in the center several more days. All interested persons should contact him in the outside employment office.

Under the sponsorship of the YWCA, a shorthand class will be conducted for beginners and intermediates. Those interested are asked to sign up with Mrs. Yayo Ambo, YWCA correlator, at block 16 from 9-11:30 a.m. or 22-21-E.

Block softball teams wishing to complete their league games before segregation gets underway should contact Aki Shiraishi, assistant athletic director. All teams were asked by Shiraishi to turn in the results of the games to the athletic department.

The Huskies B-Police game scheduled for Friday has been shifted to Saturday, 2 p.m., on the block 26 diamond, Tats Aoki, athletic director announced.

The new and old YBA cabinets will hold an important meeting at 7 p.m. Saturday at 17-25, Yutaka Oshita, vice-president, announced.

Effective Tuesday, August 31, first showing at the two movie houses will begin at 6:30 p.m. with second showings starting at 8:30 p.m., Clarence Matsumura of the technical department announced.

Registered Heart Mountain Boy Scouts leaving for Tule Lake are requested by Ed Matsuda, director, to get in touch with Boy Scout headquarters at 17-26-N to prepare their transfer forms. Scouting will be continued at Tule Lake and Matsuda urges all scouts to join the organization there.

Anyone knowing the whereabouts of Tadawa Mukaihata, formerly of North Virgil Street, Los Angeles, Calif. and graduate of Belmont High, is requested to contact the housing department.

The community enterprises store in block 8 will be closed on Sunday to enable the employees to go on a picnic outing. The store in block 20 will be opened as usual. Several hundred aerial photographs of the center are available at all of the stores at 25 cents each, Scott Taggart, community enterprises head, disclosed.
