Regulations on Fire Hydrant Control Released

Regulations governing the control of fire hydrants within the center, passed by the community council and approved by Guy Robertson, project director, were released today by Milford O. Anderson, assistant project director, as follows:

"WHEREAS, there is an ever-present danger of fire, and,

"WHEREAS, in cold weather there is a danger that our fire-fighting facilities will not be in proper condition if people are permitted promiscuously to open up fire hydrants without the proper equipment to pump the water from the hydrant dry after it is turned off thus causing the hydrant to freeze up and become useless;

"BE IT ENACTED BY THE COMMUNITY COUNCIL OF THE HEART MOUNTAIN RELOCATION CENTER OF HEART MOUNTAIN, WYOMING; that it shall be unlawful for any person to in any way touch or open a fire hydrant without first securing the written permission of the Fire Protection Officer.

"Person violating this law shall be punished by imprisonment in jail not to exceed ninety days or by fine of not more than three hundred dollars."
