

Rules on Transfer of Certificates Issued

All patrons of the community enterprises are reminded again by Ted Okumoto, chief accountant, that the transfers of certificates of indebtedness (blue note) are not complete until the certificates are properly signed by the original owner and brought to the main office of the enterprises for issuance of a new certificate to the transferees. Unless properly transferred, the payment on certificate will be made to the original owners. Partial payment on the certificate will be made during this month.

Adult Classes Start New Semester

The first quarter classes in adult education do not close until tonight and students are asked to attend classes regularly. This week is not a vacation period. Second quarter opens Monday, January 10, according to an announcement by Walter C. Schlosser, supervisor of adult education.
