

University of Michigan Business Manager to Recruit Labor Here

Francis Shiel, business manager of the University of Michigan, will arrive here June 8 for a two-day visit for the purpose of recruiting labor for residence halls at the university. Shiel is especially interested in contacting recent high school graduates.

Open House Scheduled Friday and Saturday

The new community home for the aged, located south of the hospital, will be open for public inspection 2-4:30 p.m. tomorrow and Saturday, Virgil Payne, social welfare head, announced. Everyone is urged to attend.

General Information

With the difficulty in repairing and replacing equipment, adults are requested by the community activities department to refrain from using the children's playground equipment. When money is needed to buy replacement parts, other new toys and games cannot be purchased, it was said.

Since Virginia Lynn, guidance supervisor, left last week for a two-week vacation in Minden, Neb., Mary Oka, secretary, will be at the high school office for persons desiring college application blanks, it was announced.

All blocks except one have organized YPCs and have signified their intentions of participating in the coming YPC social, it was announced by Dale Morioka, YPC coordinator. If the residents of the lone unorganized block wish to attend the social, they may do so by turning in their names at community activities headquarters, Morioka said.

Registration for apprenticeship training in the dietetics department of the hospital under the supervision of Nellie Robins, dietician, is now being held in the night school office in the high school. Girls out of high school or 18 years of age or older are preferred.

The block 28 YPC social has been changed to June 7 instead of June 3 as previously announced, according to Johnny Mishima, general chairman.

A special general meeting of the Heart Mountain golf club will be held 7 p.m. Saturday at 16th, it was announced by Art Okado, president. Persons interested in joining the club are urged to attend the meeting, Okado disclosed.

Anyone interested in working as translator for the Japanese section of the Sentinel is requested to contact the Japanese section office immediately.

Women residents between the ages of 17 and 50 are reminded that a new nurses' aide course will begin June 16 at the hospital class room. Interested persons are asked to interview Anna Van Kirk, head nurse, at the hospital before the beginning of the course.

Seasonal job offers have been received at the relocation office for agricultural workers in Utah, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Oregon, Nebraska and Colorado. Raleigh Serle, Julius Guintana and John Phelps, War Foods Administration recruiters, may be contacted at outside employment office.

The night school bookkeeping class previously scheduled for tonight will be held Friday evening.

The Girl Scouts drill team will meet 6:30 p.m. tonight at scout headquarters. The girls need not bring their pom-poms, according to Reiko Ohara, drill team leader.
