Youth Drowns While Swimming In Canal

Tragedy struck Heart Mountain Saturday when Toru Shibata, 13, of 22-19-C, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ei Shibata, drowned about 3:15 p.m., while swimming in the Garland canal 200 yards northwest of the center garbage pit. An attempt to save the boy was made by his friends, but due to the swift current the rescue proved unsuccessful as the boy sank out of sight.

After searching parties of several hundred residents labored more than 21 hours, the body was recovered at 12:48 p.m. Sunday approximately 450 yards downstream from where it was last seen.

An inquest will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow in Powell by Ray Easton, county coroner, to determine the cause of the drowning.

The administration and the internal security wish to extend their appreciation to the residents for their splendid cooperation under trying conditions during the tragedy.

The former Sacramento, Calif., lad is survived by his parents and a brother, Kaoru.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Volunteer Fire-Fighters Needed

Able-bodied men desiring to volunteer for fire-fighting in the Shoshone national park this summer are requested to contact Glenn B. Rumley, fire protection officer. A school will be conducted for the volunteers under the auspices of the forest service, he said.

General Information

Participation of children, youth clubs, YPC, and different divisions in the field day scheduled from 7 p.m. tonight south of the high school is urged by Mas Morioka, supervisor of special events.

Babies vaccinated on Monday, June 26, should be brought to the well-baby clinic on Thursday, July 6, according to Anna Van Kirk, head nurse. At that time, a final opportunity will be given to have babies vaccinated who have not been immunized previously, she said. Starting this month, the well-baby clinic will be open on Thursdays instead of Mondays.

Sheets, pillow cases and towels are now on sale at the community dry goods store, Henry T. Moriuchi, general manager, announced. A limited supply of straw hats are still available, he added.

Popsicles and root beer floats will be sold by the Junior Tri-Y, Junior Misses and the Senior Girl Reserves tonight in booths south of the high school.

Cub scouts are reminded to turn in "My Daily Record" forms weekly and get new forms at scout headquarters, according to T. H. Abe, cub commissioner.

The Wacankiya, Tanda and Wicaka group of the Camp Fire girls will take their physical examinations at 8 a.m. tomorrow at the high school clinic. The Otyokwa group and leaders will take the examination at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at the same locale.

The USO will be closed this week, according to Hisa Hirashiki, entertainment and social director.

A limited supply of Girl Scout cookies are still available at the scout headquarters, 16-N, for thirty-five cents per box.

Swimmers are warned to stay away from the pool until it is officially opened as life guards are not on duty, it was announced by Tak Shiozaki, athletic director. The pool is expected to be open Wednesday or Thursday.

Appeals for 63 Residents Filed in United States District Court

Notices of appeal were filed in United States district court in Cheyenne, Saturday, in behalf of the 63 Heart Mountain residents sentenced to three years imprisonment on convictions of failure to report for preinduction physical examinations, according to word received here.

The notices alleged each defendant had been deprived of his rights as a citizen by "being confined in a relocation center surrounded by a barbed or other wire fence, guarded by the military force of the United States and restrained of his liberty without due process of law and in violation of the Constitution of the United States."

Thirty of these convicted are awaiting transportation to the McNeil island federal prison, and the other 33 to Leavenworth federal penitentiary.

THANK YOU

For the fine cooperation and untiring efforts of the residents of Heart Mountain and administrative personnel for their search for Toru Shibata, we wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation.

Ei Shibata, father, 22-19-C

Miyoko Shibata, mother

Kaoru Shibata, brother
