

Representatives of Western Defense Command Here

Representatives of the Western Defense Command have arrived at Heart Mountain and will start tomorrow to individually notify any individuals who are to be excluded under the army's termination of the West coast exclusion order. They will also notify those individuals whose cases have not yet been determined and will interview such individuals in order to determine their final status, project officials announced today. It is not contemplated that any list will be published to the general public of those whose exclusion is to be continued.

Further development of the WRA policy regarding the return of evacuees is included in the following teletype from Dillon S. Myer, director:

"Because there may be some people at the centers who may want to be removed from the army's closed list, the following statement should be circulated to all center residents to clarify the policy:

"As of Dec. 17, 1944 leave clearance processing by the War Relocation Authority will be discontinued. After a short time leave permits will no longer be required and the only persons not free to leave any WRA center, including Tule Lake, will be persons who have been put on a stop list which will be established by the army, or parolees and deportees ordered detained by the Department of Justice. All other persons will be permitted to leave a center upon request without applying for a leave permit, except that a military permit will be required for persons residing in centers in the evacuated area who have received notification of exclusion therefrom.

Persons leaving a center without a relocation plan approved by the WRA will be ineligible for relocation assistance grants or property transportation assistance. The fact that a person has applied for repatriation or has been denied leave clearance or placed on a WRA stop list will not preclude his leaving a center if he has not been put on a stop list by the War department.

EXCLUDEES: The army has prepared a list of evacuees who are ineligible to return to any point within the redefined exclusion area. Each person on this list will receive notification of his individual exclusion. Excluees may remain in a WRA center until the centers are closed or they may resettle in other parts of the U.S. outside the exclusion area. Any excluder may apply to the War department for a hearing if he wishes his exclusion to be reconsidered.

The army has also prepared a list of evacuees whose cases will be further studied with a view to possible segregation. Each person on this list will receive individual notification that he is to remain in a WRA center for the present. All persons on either the exclusion or segregation lists who have previously received WRA leave clearance will be given priority by the army for further investigation and hearings, if needed, before their cases are finally determined.

REPATRIATION: Any alien or citizen wishing to apply for exchange to Japan, (generally known as applications for repatriation or expatriation), after the date of the lifting of exclusion order may do so through the Spanish embassy. Such applications will not affect the status of the applicant in relation to WRA operations and will not be regarded by any government agency as grounds in itself for detention. Officials of the WRA will no longer assist in making such applications.

RENUNCIATION OF CITIZENSHIP: A citizen may apply to the United States Attorney General to renounce his citizenship. The disposal of such applications and the subsequent status of such individuals will be the responsibility of the Department of Justice.

CLOSING OF CENTERS: WRA centers, other than Tule Lake, will exist for not less than six nor more than 12 months after the date of the lifting of the exclusion order. During that period they will serve as shelters for evacuees who are in the process of reestablishment in normal American communities. If during that period any statements or actions of center residents indicate possible danger to the national security the facilities of local law enforcement agencies or of the federal department of Justice will be utilized, but such action will not be cause for detention in a WRA center.
