

Sumitomo Depositors Asked to Contact Banking Department

The liquidation of the Sumitomo Bank of California, Sacramento, is nearing completion and many depositors having filed claims have not advised the State Banking Department as to their present address, according to George H. Mills, special deputy. For this reason the department is still holding checks in settlement of their claims.

Those who have filed claims against either their savings or commercial account and have not received checks in settlement of said claim, stated Mills, are asked to write to the Sumitomo Bank of California, in liquidation, care of State Banking Department, 111 Sutter Street, San Francisco, Calif.

Agricultural Expert Here to Interview Residents

Earl DeSmidt, relocation officer from the Chicago office, is visiting the center for two weeks. DeSmidt is here to meet and interview evacuees who are interested in the middle west areas. While he has attractive offers of many kinds, he is specializing in agricultural opportunities. He has a wide and full knowledge of agriculture having been with the department of agriculture for 16 years in California and the west coast, and has a large acquaintance of west coast farmers. There are many opportunities which include share cropping, leasing and employment of both families and individuals. DeSmidt will have office quarters in the relocation division and will be available during regular office hours.

Welfare Discontinues Sewing Machine Service

R.H. Embree of the welfare section announces that due to the pressure of other duties in connection with the post-exclusion program, welfare will no longer be able to continue their sewing machine service.

The machines formerly under the supervision of this department will be turned over to the block managers, and in the future the managers will handle all sewing machines in the center.

100 Railroad Workers Needed Immediately

Superintendent McBride of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad company and Mas Gotanda, a former resident of this center and now an employee of the R.R. company will be in the center Saturday and Sunday, March 3 and 4, to recruit 100 men to work in Montana. They may be contacted at Block 15-12-AB.

California Growers Institute Claims Against Commission Houses

The state of California is instituting civil action against several surety bond companies who have refused to pay the surety bonds deposited by many Japanese-owned commission houses formerly operating on the Los Angeles wholesale market, according to information received by Byron Ver Ploeg, project attorney.

All California grower-consignor-creditors in the center are requested to come to the project attorney's office to prepare and sign an affidavit for claim against each commission house.

Residents Asked to Contact Employers for Withholding Receipts

Due to the fact that no forwarding address was available, withholding receipts are being held by the Stevens hotel in Chicago for former employees who are residents of this center, it was learned recently by the project attorney's office. Those who have not yet received their receipts from the Stevens or any other firm are asked to contact their former employers immediately as these receipts are necessary in compiling income tax returns.
