Two special baggage trucks will be operated on Thursday, Friday, and until noon Saturday for the purpose of picking up checkable baggage for the June 4 train. The drivers will have lists of those leaving on that date and will call for the baggage during working hours on one of those days. The member of the family, who signed for the transportation grants, should accompany the truck and the baggage first to the leave office for his transportation request and then to the depot to buy tickets and check baggage.

Cash grants, ration books, and gate tickets must be obtained in the leave office on the same day the baggage is checked. Only hand-baggage should be kept, to be taken to the depot with you on June 4.

Center-wide Picnic to Be Held Sunday

The postponed center-wide picnic will be held Sunday, according to Kaz Narita, publicity chairman. Plans will remain the same as before with mess halls making lunches with the help of volunteers from the respective blocks. Transportation will be the same as originally scheduled for the aged and mothers with small children. The program committee will appreciate it if all those who so graciously accepted to help in making a worthwhile program will again co-operate by coming out Sunday to make the picnic a success.

Whooping Cough Inoculation Dates Changed

The whooping cough inoculation dates have been changed to the following:

| | Second inoculation | Third inoculation |
|------------------------|---------------------------|--------------------------|
| Block 12 and 22 groups | Tuesday, June 5 | Tuesday, June 12 |
| Block 1 and 24 groups | Friday, June 1 | Friday, June 8 |

Margaret Wolford, chief nurse has asked that everyone come promptly at 1 o'clock to prevent wasting of the doctor's time as he is busy and the time he and the nurses spend waiting for the patients can be used more purposefully. The inoculations are being given in the hospital.

General Information

Those persons who are named as next-of-kin of servicemen should send their changes of address to the Adjutant General, War department, Washington (25) D.C. as soon as they know their permanent address outside. Give full name, present address and new address as well as name, rank, and serial number of soldier.

Servicemen and reservists are welcome to attend the regular Wednesday night social, starting at 7:30 p.m. at the USO and Y lounge. Hosts and hostesses are asked to report promptly.
