

SEATTLE COACH PLANNED

Although the demand for special coach service to the Pacific-Northwest has been light in the past, it has recently been found that there are several families with school age children who wish to be in Seattle and other Washington and Oregon cities in time for their children to enter school in September, according to Claud C. Gilmore, assistant relocation program officer.

It has therefore been found necessary to schedule one coach for Washington and Oregon people to leave Heart Mountain on Aug. 24. Those interested in riding this coach should make arrangements in the relocation division at once.

In addition to the coach to Seattle on Aug. 24 there will also be coaches to northern and southern California and to the East.

All space on the Aug. 17 train is filled except for a space being held for persons who urgently need to go on that date. All others are asked to take the special leaving on Aug. 24, just one week later.

There is a small amount left on the Aug. 17 pullman cars to California. All of it is being reserved, however, for the ill and infirm, and mothers with infants. The next pullman cars will be ordered for Sept. 7 or 14, depending upon demand.

INTERVIEWING ENDS NEXT WEEK

A combination of illness and resignation among the members of the interviewing team has delayed the progress of the interviewing somewhat, according to Lyle Holm, acting relocation adviser.

The following schedule is expected to be met without any difficulty:

Saturday, August 11.....	Block 23
Monday, August 13.....	Blocks 24 and 25
Tuesday, August 14.....	Block 27
Wednesday, August 15.....	Blocks 28 and 29
Thursday, August 16.....	Block 30

CA. STAFF TO BE REDUCED TO 14

Plans were made here yesterday for the "skeletalizing" of Community Activities at a meeting of the CA board of directors and Project Director Guy Robertson. The project director told the group that because most of the children would have left the center to attend schools on the outside by Sept. 1, CA activities should be cut to a minimum.

As of Sept. 1, the present staff of 63 will be reduced to 14 persons, it was agreed upon at the meeting. There will be no adult activities and the only continuing organizations will be the Boy and Girl Scouts, the USO and Camp Fire Girls. These activities, too, will be terminated at a later date. The theatres will continue as long as they are self-supporting, it was announced.

The liquidation process will be commenced on Sept. 1, the project director said. With center activities rapidly declining, the project director was told that several non-essential activities could be curtailed during August and some of the personnel would be terminated before the end of the month.

FAMILY HOUSING IS OFFERED

Lowell Ayars, who is here to recruit workers for the Seabrook farms at Bridgeton, N. J., is leaving the center Tuesday night. Housing for 130 families is available at Seabrook, he said. Comfortable apartments, consisting of a combination living room, kitchen and one, two or three bedrooms will be ready for occupancy by Sept. 1.

Schools open in New Jersey about September 5. A grade school for children up to the fifth grade is located right at the housing project. High school students go to Bridgeton high school--tuition and transportation free. Japanese American children are favorably received in these schools by both teachers and others students.

According to Ayars, there is plenty of work with a guaranteed average of 48 hours per week over a 52-week period. Workers get free mid-shift meals. Almost 1300 Japanese Americans have found Seabrook farms a fine place to work and live, he said.

Residents interested should contact Ayars before he leaves Tuesday night. He may be reached at the relocation office in the administration building.

Masami Toyotome, Theological Seminary student will speak at the senior YBA service 10:45 a.m. tomorrow at 17-25. Harry Isoki is chairman.

WE'RE AMERICANS AGAIN--TORIUMIS

In the July issue of Survey Graphic magazine is an article written by Sophie and Donald Toriumi under the title of "We're Americans Again." In the editor's words, the two authors "with gallant objectivity" give a very "human account" of how people who left the relocation centers are faring in the outside world.

According to the Toriumis, the feeling of becoming Americans again after a three-year period of isolated, confined living was experienced when at the request of the board of National Missions of the Presbyterian church, they visited areas in the Midwest and East where people from relocation centers were relocating.

In addition to pointing out the outstanding work being done by the churches and schools in assisting the relocatees to become adjusted, the authors review the background of evacuation, life within a center, the attitudes, behavior and thought patterns that characterize the people in every age-group, relocation and its attendant problems, and difficulties faced by many with the imminent closing of the center.

(The Toriumis relocated to Cleveland on July 30. While here, Reverend Toriumi was pastor of the Community Christian church and chairman of its board. Mrs. Toriumi was choir director, young people's leader, and president of the YWCA board.)

GENERAL INFORMATION

The final date for tabulation of cash register receipts issued during the period Aug. 1, 1944 to July 31, 1945, is Aug. 25, Saturday, to 11:30 a.m., according to Toshio Kanazawa, general manager of the community enterprises. Residents were reminded that all cash register receipts should be turned in for tabulation before the closing date to the community enterprises main office. Failure to do so will be considered as forfeiture to the rights for patronage refund, Kanazawa said.

A benefit movie program will be sponsored by the Block 22 Old Men's club Monday, Aug. 20, at 22-30. Two feature-length pictures will be shown. They are "Tin Pan Alley", starring Alice Faye, John Payne and Betty Grable, and "Day Time Wife", starring Tyrone Power and Linda Darnell. Tickets may be obtained at the block manager's office or from members of the Block 22 YPC.

Contrary to previous announcement, the local Boy Scout headquarters will remain open until further notice, according to T. H. Abe, district chairman. Two advisers, Bill Teramoto and Dr. T. Tanaka, will remain to advise the boys in scouting. All business matters will be transacted through the Boy Scout secretary, Frances Uchida.

The weekly movie schedule will be announced in Tuesday's bulletin.
