Dear Molly:

Lowdy stranger!

What's new? Low's L.A.

treating you? I am just fine, thank you. And you?

Hope you're bubblin' with a thing called health! My

<sup>ネ</sup>
<sup>サン</sup>
(one-san) is in Chicago. Yep, she's in the 'windy city'.

I gather from her letters that she is okay. Going to business college and working after school for room and board. What school do you plan on entering?

U.C.L.A.?

So I hear, they sure seem to work men, and women too, at defense plants. Well, don't overwork yourself so you'd get sick tho' - I'm back in ole Manzanare Hi School. More fun! Guess what I done took! Dramatics! You think I can act? I, personally, say "no". Oh well, there's nothing like trying.....

When did Clara Davis get married? Gosh, I didn't know that. So many people were tho' - Give me a good 10 years before I attempt to join the sacred group.

I wouldn't be surprised if you do, soon, Mally .....

By the way, what are you planning on taking in College?

In the case of the kids working part-time and going to school, do they have school closed in the morning or afternoon or is it opened all day?

But there isn't much traffic congestion eh? By the way (here I go again with that word ~) how does Boulder St. and Folsom St. look. Have you been up near our joint? But everything's all changed. Well, I hope the war'll end soon, and hope we can go back tho' after graduation, I expect to join Mike in Chicago.

Remember Juni? Well,
she's going out your yonder
to Chicago on Ohio, so'm 9.

Well, guess I'll call it
'30' and hope you'll write soon.

Just,
Nobie

p.s. 'hi' to Boo-boo! !

How about a picture of you?
