Dear Moley:

Thanks for dropping me a line. It's sure been a long time since I last wrote. I've been going to school as usual.

Our school is not a real school so we don't have things like caps and gowns.

Right now I'm going to summer school to make up credits. If things turn out ok. — I'm going to college this September. It'll be the happiest moment in my life. Then when I go to college — I can have things like a graduation — cap and gown — prom — pictures.

Everyone is leaving camp to go out to work or go school. And you go out — it's hard to get back in.

I don't intend to come back in so I haven't much to worry about. I intend to go to Kansas City, Missouri.

There's a dance going on right in our new hall — man! in the music solid! I can't even write. My man went out so I haven't anyone to go out with. Wish he was here. Looks I'm never going to see him again unless he comes in for a visit.
OK we'll skip the whole subject.

I haven't much to say so I'll sign off before I bore you. Well—so long keep well.

Sincerely,
Zurich Christlieb
