Dear Mollie,

Received your letter yesterday. From what your letter says you must be pretty, pretty busy.

Just think you a senior '43? Gee! but the years go by so fast. How was the last graduation? Did they have it in the afternoon or night? We started late so our semester ends on Feb 19. Thirty students are going to graduate, ^{going to} three have a pross and a senior ditch day that's tomorrow. Graduation is on the 19th. Some how I wish I ditched don't have to graduate in June and yet I want to. I don't know what to do ~~for~~ after I do graduate. I guess the only thing for me to do is get a job like the rest are doing, but I sure would like to go out. Of course you know my mother won't let me. I'm to young, she says. I wonder when I'm going to grow up.

I guess you're still writing to Sandy. She seems to be busy now a days. I guess you'd be shocked when you see her. She changed when I say changed. I mean changed. Will I guess you know all about it anyway.

Has you ever heard from Junks? She seems to be having a lot of fun down there. One body said that she has a steady boy. She didn't tell me, I just said someone told me.

By the way, will you please do me a favor. Please? I would like to subscribe to the "Rough Rider". Is there any kind of an arrangement so that the school can send it to me, or if I send you the postage will you send it to me? I know your busy. Maybe it would be better to let the school send it to me, so you won't be bothered. If you can do this for me I'll appreciate it very much. Thank you.

By the way, did I thank you for the box of candy? You know I'm so forgetful. It was gone in no time. That kind of candy is very scarce.

Well I guess I better close now, because it time to eat so I say Aloha for now.

Sincerely yours
Friend always
Scott

P.S. Enclosed is 35¢ for the "Rough Riders".

The reason why I want it is because if I were there it would be my last term and I want read the news of our predatory class.

Thank you.

Be Good

P.S.S. Let me know how much postage it take to send it out to me.

I'll send it out right away.
