

V. DeLo
2123. N. Magnolia
Chicago 14. Ill.

Miss Mollie Wilson
3039 Boulder Street
Los Angeles 33, Calif.

2123 N. Magnolia Ave.
Chicago 14, Illinois
January 3, 1945

Dearest Mollie:

Please forgive me for not writing as often as I should.
You can be sure tho' that I think of you all the time.
Thanks a lot for your gift.
Do you know what? This is the stationery you sent me.
Hope you have received my surprised package by now.
I had the store send it out for me so it may be a little late.

Well, how are you's studying hard? June Yoshigai was staying with me during her Xmas vacation. She comes

To Chicago once a month and stayed ~~over~~ for the week end. It's only 60 miles away from here. 60 miles west from here.
It takes about an hour and a half by train.

Hope that you had a very nice Xmas and
New Year.

Yep! I'm still working Hard working me.

The weather now is very, very cold. New Year's Eve or was it New Year's nite, anyway can't remember, it was 8 below zero. That was it cold! On the way to work the next morning I was shaking like a leaf on a windy day in March. We've had zero weather for five days. Don't know how I'm going to last through the winter. Standing on streetcar corners is no fun. Feels like I don't have any toes, fingers, or nose. Don't want to be so bad its 2 below.

Lucky you!

My brother say that he knows your oldest brother

Is he in the Army? My brother always asks me to ask you if he is in the Armed Forces, but of course you know me.

Mollie you can be sure that I'll never forget you. You were so kind to me while I was in camp,
and that kindness will never be forgotten.

While June was here
she received your Xmas gift.

Well, Mollie I guess

I have to plant you now and dig you later. I'll try to dig you up soon.

Be good and thank again.

Most sincerely,
Veslet Lantz