Dear Molly-

Here I've been waiting for days and days wondering when you're going to write - then I remembered I was supposed to answer your letter. Kindly excuse this belate letter, won't you?

What's buzzin', cuzzin? Anything new or exciting? Everything is as usual here in camp. Right after the boys registered, we girls registered. Believe me pal, it certainly was not easy answering question number 28. It was worded kind of hard - if we put down "yes", it'd mean we were enemy's with our own parents, and hardly have a chance of ever going to Japan even to visit our relatives; but on the other ~~the~~ side, we couldn't say "no", because the United States is our country, where we were born and raised. But the majority put down "yes", pledging our loyalty to America. My parents both understood how difficult it was, but they also believe I was right in answering "yes". If we have a chance to enter the J.P.A.C.'s - we're going! Lots of boys here have volunteered for the army. Our block has the most who've volunteered. They gave them parties and etc.

By the way, how's Kenny? Next time you write, send him our regards, and tell him we're all wishing him the best of luck! Gee, is Harold in the Air Corps? How's he getting along? Send him my "hello" okay? Say, remember the Kawabata's who used to live in front of us? Well, Yaeke and Emiko are in Wyoming. Tadashi (Joe) in Boston, Yasuo is here, but in Camp I - Hiroshi at Manzanar, and Keubo - remember the smallest baby? Well, he's here in Camp II - same camp we're in! I sent it too bad how they're all separated? Tadashi came over the other day from Boston for a visit --- to say "goodbye" to Yasuo, his grandmother, Keubo, and us! You see, he's also volunteered for the army! Gosh, is he tall! But he's way, way, taller than Kenny - maybe as tall as Albert or even more! Gee, was I surprised, didn't even recognize him at first!

You asked whether the family still remembered you? Of course, how can they forget you? Every time I mention Saudie's name, they ask about you. If I mention your name, they wonder about Saudie! Speaking of Saudie - man alive, is she pretty tho! I hear she gets around like "nobody's business" out there in Colorado!

Oh yes, mom asked to me ask you if you know how Mr. and Mrs. Bailey are! Last night mom dreamt that Mrs. Bailey was real ill in bed, so will you see how she is, and let us know? I thank a lot!

How are your parents, brother, and dog? Gee, I remember how scared we were of your dog! It sure makes me laugh when I think how your dog scared us! Boy, and did you love "osuski", "me-boski" - "sho-ga" and other things! Gosh, I miss those things myself.

Well, guess I'd better be signing off now - until I hear from you, I remain

Your friend,

June Yoshizai

P.S. I actually made the honor roll here at school!
(Amazing things do happen - agree?)

P.P.S. Haruko Ishimine - Harvey Hake Haki and Masako something-or-other are here from Roosevelt Is. They're in Camp #1.

Fuyiko Kobayashi is here in Camp #2 - I see her every day at school. She was teaching a Sunday-School Class - I don't know if she still is though. She says "hello Molly".

P.P.P.S. Tell Joyce I'll be writing to her soon.

P.P.P.P.S. Mom was ill in bed for a few weeks, so I was kind of busy - now that she's much better, I have a little time, so I'll be writing to her okay?

Bye now and be good gal!

Sincerely,

J. Y.
