

Miss Molly Wilson
3039 Boulder Street
Los Angeles, 33, California

June Yoshigai
1235 West North Shore
Chicago, 26, Illinois.

1235 West North Shore
Chicago, 26, Illinois
July 6, 1944

Dear Molly-

御免下さいませ

如何ですか
長い間
手紙を書きませんで

Okay pal - how goes, able to read it?
Well - "yogore" means - well - you know - a guy with drapes, <sup>and</sup> etc.
"abunai" means dangerous.

Gee, would have written sooner - but I got the measles. Doc says
I can't use my eyes for awhile.
Still in a semi-dark room. Been in a dark room for a couple of days. Really maddening

Sandie was here last month - Swell kid - she's certainly pretty - always was a cute kid, wasn't she? She left for Oberlin College - in Oberlin, Ohio last Sunday. When next we meet, she'll probably be married with so many kids, ne?

Have you heard from Kenney? How is he? I have a couple of very good friends now in Italy. Remember Joe Kawabata? He volunteered for the army last year. I suppose he's overseas, too. How is Doris, Albert, and etc. Kindly extend my regards to them, won't you?

Should write a decent letter, but my eyes says "no go" - so will be signing off for now.

Won't be able to mail this letter until Saturday - when I make my debut to the outside world again.

Believe me, it's hectic being confined in a darkened room -

Write soon, won't you?

Love,
june yoshizai