

Miss Molly Wilson
3039 Boulder St.
Los Angeles, 33,
California

355 Augusta Ave.
De Kalb, Illinois
January 22, 1945
12:30 P.M.
lunch hour

Dearest Molly!

Because you're engaged, I'm so excited - crazy, but I can't help it! (Just read your letter!) Honest, Mol - it's a thrill - we must all be growing up - my goodness - you're engaged! I'm very glad - only wish I knew who he is and what he looks like - what kind of a person he is, and - well Molly, he must be swell - he'd better be - oh golly, it's swell!

Good to hear Miyeko and Mrs. Sasaki had the opportunity to go back. Well Molly, I guess I'll be content with De Kalb and Chicago for another year - I'm attending school - majoring in English and my minor is Speech. It's a Teachers' College, but I've enrolled as a special student - and so have to pay about $50.00 more than a regular student per year - but it's worth it! Say, what is your ambition - aside from being married? Care to let me in on it? As for me - I don't know yet Molly - only a Freshman.

My folks and Kay are still in camp. Molly, I hate to brag, but Kay really blossomed out - guess she's the pride of the family. Dad is weak and can't do very much -

How is Joyce Washington? I haven't heard from her for quite awhile - Hope everything is getting along smoothly for her!

It's 1:15 P.M. - better sign off - will write again
Bye now -
Love,
Jim

My regards to your Mother - Kenny +
Atoy!