Dear Mrs Whitney,

Just a few lines to let you know we received the drug supplies to-day. I know Alma will be very happy to come to Poston and find things ready for Layne. We were more than pleased to see the hair oil, too.

Did you have an enjoyable evening in town last Tuesday? I can imagine what a pet little Princess is, and her encounter with the stunk made Louise very indignant. She's probably learned her lesson!

The light rain fall brought marvelous results. The day after, we had a perfect day here, but to-day, it was 102° in our apartment, near the less, the dust settled - some what.

142 The first pay off started to-day, & Louise received a grand sum of $2.02 for 3½ days in June. As yet we haven't received ours, but by ^{the} next letter, I hope I can give you some further information.

Dad has decided to spend a few hours daily doing some kind of work, as he realizes all the idle hours hasn't helped him any-(mentally or physically). He is still so thin. The poor soul.

The girls just finished having a dance session in our apartment - there have been going on for the past few nights, so dad usually "parks" on friends don't step until he thinks it's over.

with. He is still so considerate about things like that.

I shall have to hurry & close this, or else I'll have to walk home from the shower house alone. 143

My regards to the family, and thanks for all the trouble you undauntedly had to go through for the supplies. Yes the price for the note books some what surprised me, but I suppose everything has gone up. However, it is all right.

Thank you so much again.

With love,

Fernando

Went. He is still so concerned about things like that.
close this. I like I'll have to wear some from the showers have close.

My regards to the family.
and thank you for all the trouble you undoubtedly
the supplies. If the price for the rate book some that surprised me, but I suppose everything has gone up. However, it's all right.
I shall see you so much again.
With love,
