

you've found a reliable couple. I hope you'll be able to get you much needed rest.

Our regards to Mr. Whitney, Gene & Braddo.

With love,

Dear Mrs. Whitney,
We are getting ready to go to the ball game tonight, but I've decided I shan't make until I have written you a few lines. Our black soft ball team is playing - and as a rule we turn out to support them. I don't know if it does much good, but they seem to think so!

Did I forget to tell you the tea was enclosed in the last package Mrs. Whitney? If I did, I am terribly sorry, because we certainly have been enjoying all the good green tea you've sent us. Thanks so much.

We actually had a rather cold early morning this a.m.
In fact, around 3 A.M. I had to crawl between covers, & this morning when we went to the mess hall, I had to wear a sweater. Oh, how we are looking forward to the winter months ahead. It was somewhat cooler to-day, thank goodness, but since they are working on the canal near by, the dust flies quite freely.

I went on a visiting tour to the other nursery schools to-day, a morning more or less spent to see how - in other schools the childrens act. Well - after I got back, I really appreciated my youngsters. We're getting along jamaicely.

We received a letter from Alma several days ago, and she seemed very much upset because Layne has been sick so much since their going to Santa Anita, and then too, a new ruling has come in. where many's children will not be able to remain the rest of the family unless for special reasons. She asked that we go see the Camp Manager, but since Mr. Head does not take care of that end of it, I talked to Miss Findley. She was very understanding and sympathetic about it all - and said she'd try her best to see what she could do. I know if Alma & her family were to come to Boston, we could help her with Layne too.

I don't know how true it all is, but we have been told Santa Anita would go to Arkansas, and Pomona to Wyoming.

I must hurry along, as the rest are waiting. Oh yes - I'm very glad to hear
