Dear Mrs. Whitney,

Just a few lines to let you know we are all well, and getting along nicely. Early mornings and evenings are really grand, and I know in a short time, the afternoons will be as pleasant.

I suppose Lovie has told you all about pay day - & my misfortune in being left out until a later day. Well, I only hope I won't have to wait too long.

We went to Mass to day but Father Lavery was not there.

However, Father Clement was there - and he said he had been appointed to be the priest from Marysnell for Poston & the new Vita Center - so it looks very much as if Father Lavery will not be here permanently. I am sorry to hear this as we were just getting acquainted with Father Lavery - and I feet free to talk as I wanted too. Regardless - we still plan to attend regularly.

223 Oh yes Mrs. Whitney - you may be interested to know I have been reading a little of the new testament daily - and when I run across a lesson we've had already, it pleases me to no end to recognize it. I am still reading St. Matthew, and find it very interesting.
I honestly think it is written in a very interesting - understandable way.

How is Mr. Whitney, and the rest of the family? We were all happy to hear you had heard from Praddo - and that he is well. Please give him our regards.

Louise was somewhat "disgoin" to think her grand child - (Pete - Mrs. Book cat) would have an ordinary family - but she nevertheless feels quite proud. She tells the story

Children in our block she's a great grandmother now. Yes, she's still as simple & sweet as ever. I don't suppose she'll ever change - I hope not. 224

We haven't given up all hopes in Alma's coming to Boston. At least, I shall try until the final day, and then I'll know I've tried my best.

Do you still plan to visit us sometime in September?
We are all anxiously awaiting the day, and I hope it will be soon. Incidentally - I've made some improvements in our apartment. We ordered some natural tan Mouchoir cloth & made screens to partition the bed section from the "sitting room". I also made pleated "skirts" for two tables & covered the tops with blue oil cloth.
It looks quite homey & cozy now.

I shall have to close as it is getting very late. Our regards to the rest of the family, to Mrs Sanderson & Mrs Daugherty please.

With love,
Fumiko
