Dear Mrs. Whitney,

254
Thank you very, very much for your letter which came today. I appreciate your telling me about Princess's illness, and I hope you will let me know whenever anything of that sort happens. Will you very kindly - please? Altho' news like that is distressing, I'm more at ease knowing that I'll know about it. - Until Fumiko assured me with her letter that Princess was better, I honestly felt <sup>the</sup> worst I've felt since I had to leave her behind. It's times like these that I'm glad I did. - And I'm ever grateful to you, Mrs. Whitney, for taking her. - I shudder to think of what might have happened had she been here and become ill.

I hope she is well now and not causing you to worry. Thank you ever so much for giving her all the fine care. I'm terribly sorry she dirtied your house. I wish I could have been there to

255- do something about it

Gee. Mrs. Whitney, I really hope to repay you some day.

Ever lovingly,
Louise

Please thank Mr. Whitney for me, too.
