Dear Mrs. Whitney,

Alma told me you wrote to the War Relocation Authorities concerning my release so I may leave camp. Thank you very much for writing and having confidence in me.

I shall certainly try my best to conduct myself so that the people in Minnesota will know we are good loyal citizens.

I was asked for

Although it looks very much like it will rain again tonight.

378 I am very anxiously waiting for my release so that I may leave. It should come within a few weeks.
Thank you again Mrs.
Whitney, for writing. I appreciate it

Sincerely,
Dorothy

references of friends and thought if you but did not know they would ask you to write to the Relocation Authorities. I hope it was not too much troubles. 379

Last evening I attended Mass with Louise and Sumiko and it was a wonderful feeling to have Christmas come stealing in while sitting in the Chapel. All through the services we could hear the rain falling on the roof top and could see the rain splatter against the window panes. Rain is very unusual in Boston
