

THE SCHWABENLAND CATAPULTS THE NORDMEER

In Long Island Sound, off Larchmont, the German mother ship "Schwabenland" shot the Deutsche Lufthansa flyingboat "Nordmeer" into the air on her return flight to the Azores. Shortly before the "Nordwind" had arrived, completing her first westward flight.

WR179.011

At the hand of President Roosevelt, J. T. Trippe receives the plaque which signifies Pan American Airways' award, for 1937, of Collier Trophy, most highly prized award in American Aviation. Thomas H. Beck, president of Collier's Magazine looks on. The trophy was put into competition 26 years ago by the late Robert Collier, and awards are made now through the National Aeronautic Association.