curiously become a member of the group that he is covering.

"Needless to say, failure to report on time is the unforgivable sin in convention-reporting work. Obstacles bob up, but we count on the ingenuity of the reporter to get around them.

"One of our Chicago staff was slated for a convention of the National Retail Hardware Association in Indianapolis. Being unusually busy, she arranged to take the last possible train out of Chicago that would get her to the meeting on time. This happened during the Eucharistic Congress, when traffic was so congested that the delays
