

BIG ISLE ISSEI PIONEER HONORED: Joseph Sureck, director of the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service in Honolulu, is shown presenting The Hawaii Times trophy to Toyozo Doi, 90, of Paauhau, Hawaii, for being the Japanese Issei pioneer with the longest residence on the Island of Hawaii. The father of Masato Doi, Honolulu attorney and member of the board of supervisors, Doi has made his home continuously at Paauhau for the past 70 years. The presentation was one of the highlights of a dinner held at the Honokaa Club last Friday night, when Sureck gave the principal address on "Naturalization and Statehood." — (Tadayuki Tsugawa photo)

HJGC BANQUET

Every member and guest had a good time at Sunday evening's Annual New Year's banquet of the Honolulu Japanese Golf Club because the HJGC is a quality organization.

During President Herbert Shinagawa's 1958 administration, 25 new members were added and 13 brand new members joined the HJGC at Sunday's banquet to boost the Club's membership to some 292 members. That's equivalent to 73 foursomes, which means that the teeing off process, spaced at 5-minute intervals for each quartet, would require 6 full hours—from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m.—for completion.

It also means 292 tees on which in the same companion International Goodwill golf fest.

The new HJGC president is Concessionaire Joe Shikata of the Ala Wai links, a former flankman for the Punahou Buffanblus and U.H. Rainbow football teams. The new vice president is Harold Fukunaga. We remember way back in the early 1920's when Shinagawa, Shikata, Fukunaga, Tom Tsuchiyama and Thomas T. Tokita played ping pong (table tennis) and 10-cent-an-hour pocket billiards at the Nuuanu YMCA.

PRO WRESTLING

There will also be quality in pro wrestling here tomorrow night when Challenger Don Leo Jonathan (300) of Hurricane, Utah, tackles Champion Al Lolotai (235)
