TORN

From the cool, refreshing "Evergreen State"—
Olympia, Yakima, Chinook, Vancouver,
Seattle, Cumberland, Tacoma, Kent,
The Sound,
The carefree, laughing, tumbling waters
Of the great river
Columbia;
And Cascade Range—

From the "Beaver State" and the Douglas Fir—
Salem, Tillamook, Oakbrook, Lyons,
Sugarloaf Mountains and Onion Peak,
Strawberry Mountains, Myrtle Creek . . .
Mount Hood and Crater Lake—

And from the "Golden State"—
L. A., 'Frisco, San Jose,
Fresno, Napa, Monterey,
Del Norte, Vallejo, Santa Cruz,
Palo Alto, Ventura, Mountain View,
Sierra Nevadas . . .
Joaquin and Sacramento valleys
Spread below.

Plucked from far-flung expanses,
Guided by the hand of Destiny
Into the bosom of a desert waste.
And together, we, from every stream of life,
Gazed upon
Heart Mountain.

*Dear Raylo - Best of luck to you always!
Love,
Gus*

*Dear Raylo, I wish you happiness always,
and love,
Mary Smith*

WE CAME

To a bleak
Solitary
Square-shouldered peak;
Barren wastelands,
Barbed wire fence;
Then . . . a terraced slope . . .
A wide expanse of tar-papered
Barracks
Looms into view
In patterned monotony,
As if mocking
Memories
Of shady orchards
And flourishing fields.
An empty, hopeless feeling . . .
No grass . . .
No trees . . .
Only withered sagebrush;
Sharp-spined cactus;
Sharp-barbed fence,
Sharp-edged dust—
“Can anything live here?”
No grass . . .
No trees . . .
Only wind and dust.

Happy landing!

Looking for the crates

"On my honor . . ."

"And what did you see the first winter?"

I saw sparsely scattered grass wither and die—
The hardy sage gave up the struggle for life.

I saw days shorten,
Nights lengthen,
And the cold light of distant stars
Flash in a chilly, crystal-clear night.
I saw hoary frost in the morning,
And gutters iced.
I saw birds fly to warmer climes.

I saw sun-tanned evacuees prepare for a long, hard winter—
Yarn-embroidered P-coats,
"Engine" boots and scarfs,
"Long Johns" and earmuffs,
A change from skirts to slacks—
I saw the dust and scorching heat of Autumn
Turn to sleet and sub-zero weather.
I saw people draw their coats tight
And plow through mud and sleet.

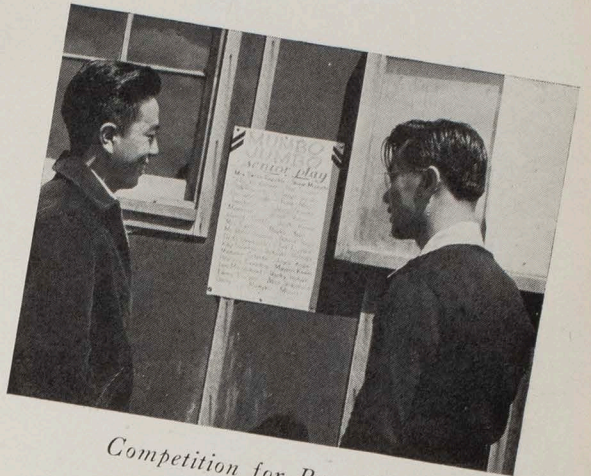

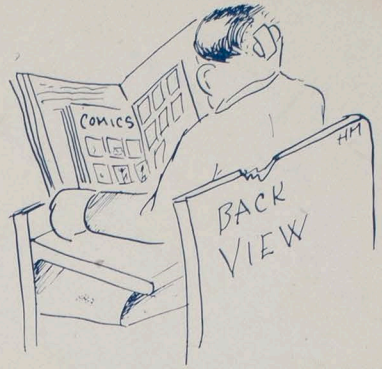

Future journalists . . .?!

HMH Echoes' Staff, '43

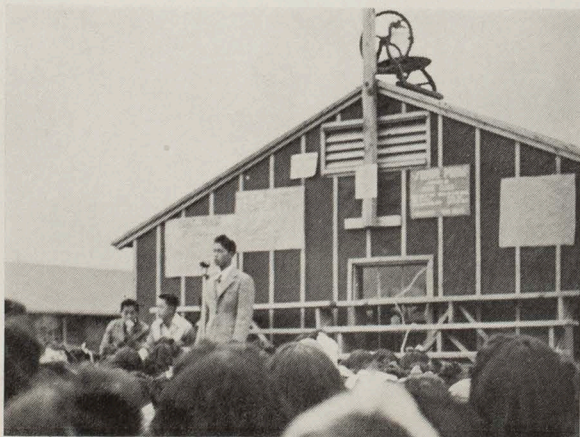

October, '42, saw students
 Three to a seat, sharing the same book,
 In tar-papered barracks;
 Huddling around temperamental
 G. I. stoves;
 Confused by the adjoining room's recitation
 Heard through the thin partition;
 Stamping their feet for warmth
 As they attended aud-calls
 Held in the great out of doors;
 Establish a school newspaper;
 Student government became a reality—
 Campaign speeches, and promises—
 The "Echoes" made its debut—
 And on that chilly morn in March
 The Stars and Stripes proudly climbed
 The newly erected staff
 While the Scouts played
 "To the Colors."

Dear Kids
you probably
don't remember me,
but I happen to be the unfortunate one to be known by you in the Hollywood
Judo school.
I'm wishing a swell girl &
a real good athlete all the luck, happiness & success the world has to offer.
a N.Y.C. student,
George Igawa

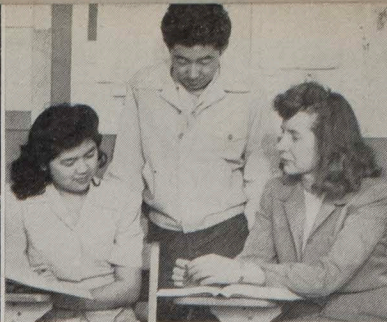

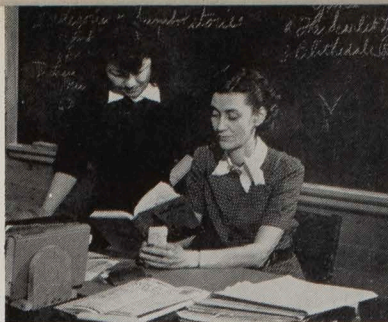

September, '43---

I saw students enter the new school building
Sprawling, barn-like.
Red roof, real halls,
Electric bells, and windows everywhere;
Regulation class rooms, workshops,
Library,
A modern heating system;
Roomy study halls, a chem lab,
And last, but hardly least,
Our pride and joy,
A triple-purpose gym:
Dancing,
Aud-calls,
And indoor sports.

Typical Senior Girl and Boy
HISAKO TAKEHARA AND JIM SHINTANI

"Say, who are you?"

Well, I'm a Faicom, Zebra, Belle Sharmier—
Cardinal?
Absolutely!
Pep Girl?
Certainly!
Royal Duke?
Sure 'nuff!
I'm also a Vagabond, Eaglette, Girl
Scout, Chattanooga,
And that isn't all!—
I play football, basketball, baseball, too—
I attend sewing bees and Girl Scout meetings;
I belong to the Girls Reserves.
I'm proud to be a Boy Scout,
And I'm an ardent Hi-Y member.

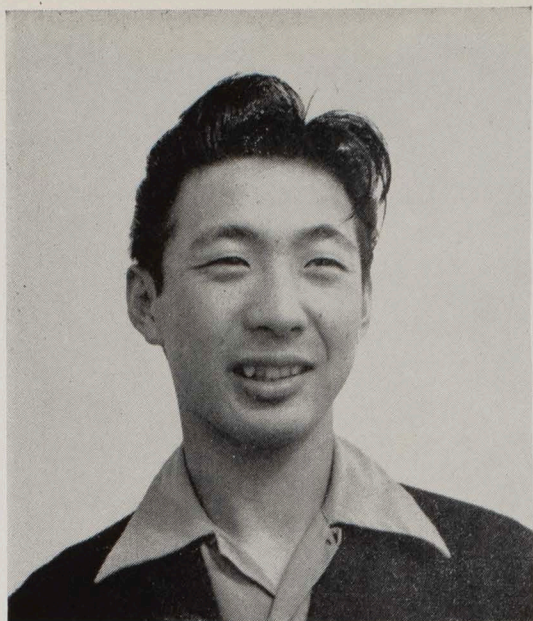

"You sure are something!"

You bet!

Furthermore, I set examples,
Take the initiative—
Responsibility falls on my shoulders.
I growl ferociously at awe-stricken
Freshmen;
To the Sophomores—a disdainful smile;
And I greet the reverent Juniors
With a silent Byronic nod.
In class,
I read the expertly hidden comic book,
And manage to keep a studious look—

"I still don't know who you are."

Why, I'm the Senior Class of Summer, '44!

Senior Part-time Workers

I work in mess halls, the hospital,
Motor pool and warehouse.
I can drive a truck and shovel coal—
Or even sew a hem.

I planted and nourished Victory gardens,
Helped harvest camp-grown crops,
Worked on farms, railroads, and in canneries
To help the war effort.

"Young April"

I went to see "Young April"

On the eve of April's Fool;

I saw my best pals,

Suffering "growing pains."

Romeos and Juliets cavorted around—

Amy and Paul aged twenty years in one night.

Late rehearsals and frantic prompting—

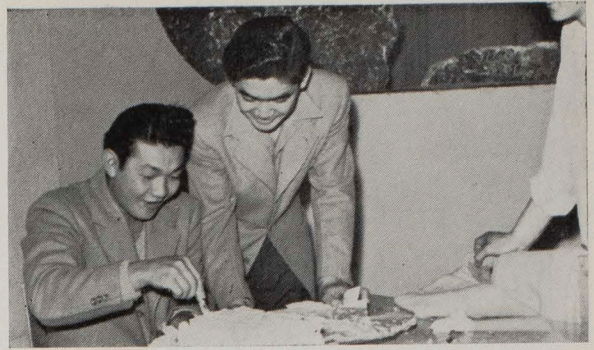

And then—

Opening night:

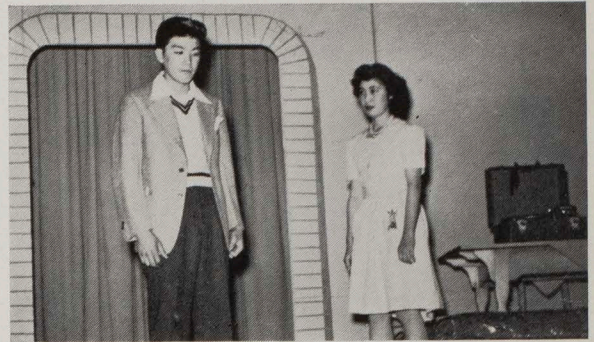

Footlights, Houselights, Spotlights—Curtain—

And "Young April" was born—

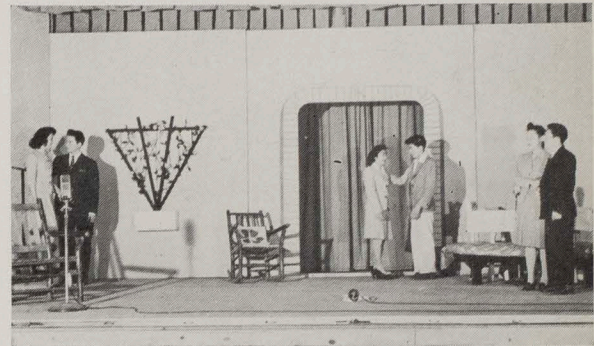

Hollywood, here I come!

"Save a slice for me!"

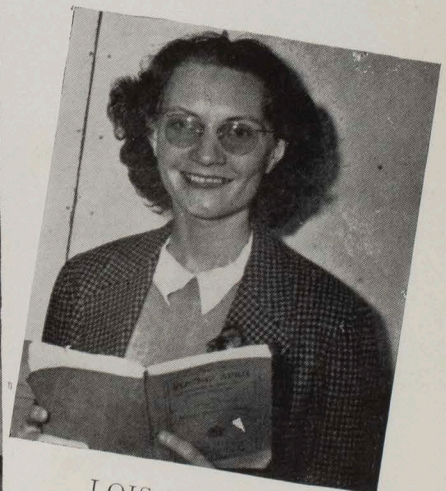

"Couldn't you be in love with me"

"All's well that ends well"

Listen——!

The Wind!

“What have you learned at Heart Mountain?”

I’ve learned the lesson of the wind!
It goes like this:

I’ve twisted and warped the timberline pine:
The defiant trees are perpetually bowed;
I’ve uprooted groves of cottonwood
As they foolishly tested my strength;
But blow as I will
And scream as I will,
The delicate willow I’ve yet to conquer:
The harder I blow,
Bending, giving,
Like a foil of tempered steel.
As soon as my strength and fury is spent,
It leaps back erect;
No longer bowed—just gracefully bent.

The fence has gnarled the stubborn "pine,"
 The tower has toppled the "cottonwood tree,"
 But wind, dust, tower, nor fence
 Will ever o'ercome the "willow"!
 The "timberline pine" is bitter,
 And, though young, looks haggard—old;
 The "cottonwood tree" lies rotting away
 In the trough it made when it fell;
 In the cool hush of evening,
 When nature sets the clouds afire
 And the west is glowing red,
 I pass gently by the "willow tree,"
 And it seems to quietly meditate
 Of curious and wonderful ways
 Its roots may follow
 To tap again that vital flow—
 The Stream of Life.

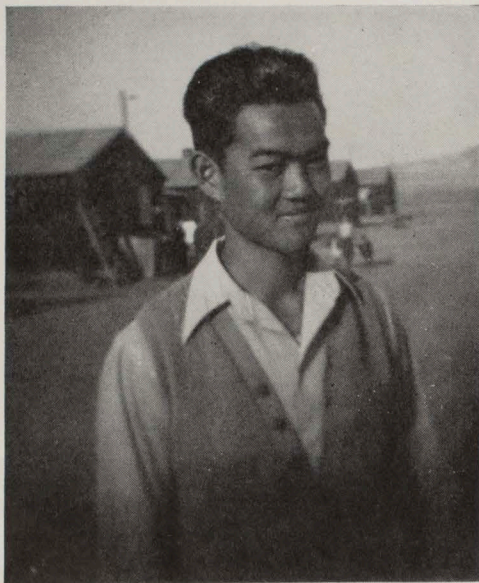

Wise is the "willow."
 Listen—!

The Wind!

Everybody that's anybody knows all about me . . . I told them.

I walk the plank for the Seniors because my turn comes next . . .

I'm cool, cocksure, and smooth,
I'm solid . . . but not in geometry.
I plug away at Chem and Lit hopefully; some day I'll plug the man who wrote those books . . .

I'm the potato picker, window washer, dishwasher, sports star . . .

The Ball? . . . I'm there!
The Prom? . . . I'm there!

"You sure are somebody."

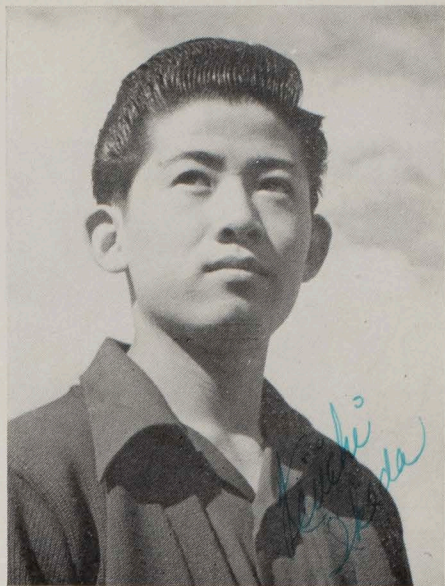

Nacherly.

"Who are you, anyhow?"

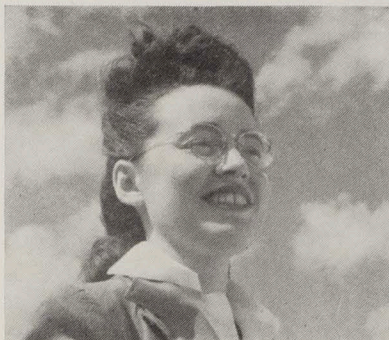

I'm the gang that's going to carry on:
I'm the Junior Class.

ART . . .

Miss Joy Krueger, who is herself an excellent and versatile artist, supervises and encourages every boy and girl who is a potential artist.

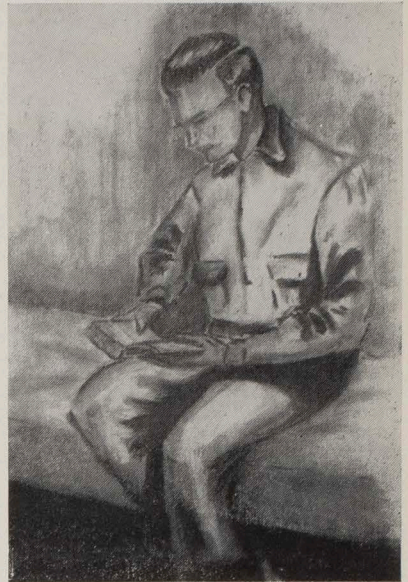

The unique creative ability of our students is discovered and developed in the many and varied art classes at Heart Mountain High School.

Watercolor, tempera, charcoal, ink, pencil, pastel, crayon—all of these mediums afford an outlet for the particular artistic urges of our students. We are especially proud of the work done in ceramics.

On these pages are reproduced outstanding student creative work.

Football

Despite the fact that this season marked the initial year for football here, Coaches Thompson's and Kawasaki's proteges finished the four-game schedule with flying colors . . . To an UNDEFEATED, UNTIED, and almost unscored upon season . . . Without the splendid coaching of these coaches, such a team may never have been.

Nomura, Shinji, and Yoshinaga being the only men with any experience, the mentors worked against time to smooth out the inexperienced team for its opening campaign on October 1st against Worland . . . Staging a thrilling last quarter touch-down march before about 4,000 fans, the Eagles took their first inter-scholastic game, 7 to 0 . . . Worland looked formidable throughout the encounter, with Ray Saito's punts pushing the locals back . . . After halting two Worland scoring threats, the Eagles drove ninety-three yards to tally on a pass from Nomura to Yoshiyama from the five-yard stripe four minutes before the gun.

October 9th . . . The Eagles chalked up their second tilt, 25 to 0, at the expense of the Carbon County Coyotes from Red Lodge in Montana . . . The issue was never in doubt as our boys ran the invaders ragged from the opening whistle as Nomura ran the kick-off 90 yards back to pay dirt . . . Second stringers tallied the second touchdown.

Second row—Coach Kawasaki, S. Igawa, I. Morita, S. Terazawa, T. Tatsuhiro, K. Tomikawa, B. Shimizu, S. Sumii, J. Shiraki, M. Shimamoto, M. Miyatake, S. Ogomori, S. Miyakawa, Coach Thompson.

BABE NOMURA

SHOICHI NOMURA

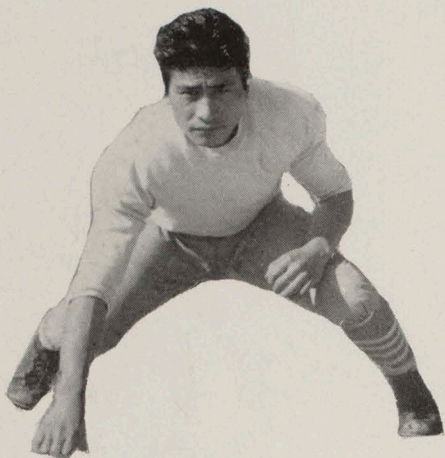

KEIICHI IKEDA

The first eleven, taking part in only six plays of the game, struck twice more in the third quarter . . . Two weeks later, the Blue and White took their third straight victory, downing the Lovell Bulldogs, 6 to 0 . . . Playing without Nomura, the Eagles were held until the fading minutes of the tilt, when capitalizing on a fifteen-yard penalty, we took five plays to cross the goal fifteen yards away . . . Yoshiyama smashed through center for the six points . . . On October 31st, after a long layoff, HMM tangled with the local All-Stars on a freezing day . . . With Nomura kicking an important conversion, the Eagles nosed out the favored Stars 7 to 6 . . . It was a memorable one point that kept our undefeated and untied record intact.

Basketball

With the construction of the gym, basketball was brighter than the year before . . . the outdoor courts with players coughing from the dust, were things of the past . . . The varsity completed the season with ten victories out of nineteen contests, which was good for our casabamen who were handicapped by their lack of height . . . Although being new arrivals here, Coaches Jim Uyeda and Hank Sakaue did nobly at their posts, taking over the immense job of putting together an inexperienced unit that could meet the taller Wyoming teams . . . Captain Yoshiyama, Keiichi Ikeda, and Mas Hamamoto sparked the team to many victories.

On the fifth of December, the all important opening clash was held with the Thermopolis Bobcats on the home court before a capacity crowd . . . The Eagles showed plenty of fight as they matched basket for basket with the taller Bobcats, leading 9 to 8 at the half . . . In the last period the Bobcats, getting their second wind, slowly drew away to a 29 to 21 triumph.

Within the next week, the Eagles tangled twice with the Lovell Bulldogs, with the latter edging out two close wins, by two and one-point differences . . . The Blue and White finally tasted victory when the Cowley Jaguars were handed a 39 to 22 tanning from our win-hungry Eagles . . . After downing Cowley in a return match, HMH met the powerful Worland Warriors who snapped our two-game win streak with a convincing 33 to 17 win . . . Another encounter that highlighted the season was the Powell game . . . The Eagles outplayed the high-touted Panthers for three quarters, hitting the hoop from all angles, and displaying a good defense . . . But the height of the Powell boys was too much for us.

The thriller of the season was the Red Lodge tussle; the game was played exceptionally well as the lead switched hands throughout the contest . . . Miyamoto's two free throws and Shiraki's basket tied it up at 29 all with less than a minute left in the game . . . Captain Yoshiyama, playing right in the clinches, hit the net with a long two-handed swisher.

Meeting the Cowley Jaguars for the third time, the Eagles finally met defeat in a thrilling rough and tumble tilt . . . With the score 16 all in the final canto, the visiting five rallied to pull ahead, but the locals whittled the lead down to two points with Ikeda stealing the ball away to score the tying basket as the gun sounded . . . In the overtime period, both quintets fought hard to tally with three fouls committed by both sides . . . The Eagles failed on all three of their attempts whereas the Cowley cagers made good on all of their tosses.

Rounding off the season the right way the Eagles walked away to a 43 to 32 win over the hapless Burlington quintet in a return match.

During the season, Heart Mountain ran up a total of 545 points while allowing their opponents 496 digits, to average 28.6 markers per game against 26.1 for the opponents . . . In the individual scoring bracket, Ikeda headed the list with a grand total of 174 points in nineteen games, Mas Yoshiyama and Mas Hamamoto followed with 106 and 95 digits respectively, both also playing nineteen games.

Intra-Mural

Intra-mural basketball played an important part in the athletic life of the HMM students since the construction of the new gym which provided a haven for indoor sports . . . The boys heartily took part in the program set before them, playing their games either after school or at night . . . The two top divisions, the Major and Minor leagues, were composed of ninth to twelfth graders and were won by the Whippets and the Royal Duke Cees, respectively, in young robin play . . . Both teams lost but one out of their seven-game schedule.

The Royal Duke Cees are as follows: First row—Isamu Ito, Dabo Nagafuchi, Akira Hashimoto. Second row—Mas Nagao, Maki Deguchi, Yas Aihara, Matsu Nitta, Taka Kutsuma.

The "E" and "F" leagues, for seventh and eighth graders, played through an elimination tournament as the Yoges, captained by Sam Ide, and the Bruins, captained by John Murata, won in their respective divisions.

The Yoges are as follows: Hod Otani, Tohru Shimizu, Sam Ide, Bobby Kimura, George Kamikido. Those missing are: Edward Iseri and Tamio Uchida.

Baseball

With the issuance of a surprise call for baseball with four weeks left in the school semester, the HMH hardball squad hurriedly took shape with approximately forty-six mitmen turning out for the first practice session . . . Coached by "Tubby" Kawasaki, the horseholders, after being cut to a squad of twenty-five men, were molded into shape within a week for the first official practice tilts with the Zebras, last season's center champs . . . The two games proved that the Eagles lacked the necessary experience against a seasoned team, losing both games by large scores of 14 to 4 and 12 to 5.

Only returning mitmen from last year's softball squad are Keiichi Ikeda, Mas Yoshiyama, and Bob Shimizu . . . Players missing from the picture are George Iseri and Yoshiyama.

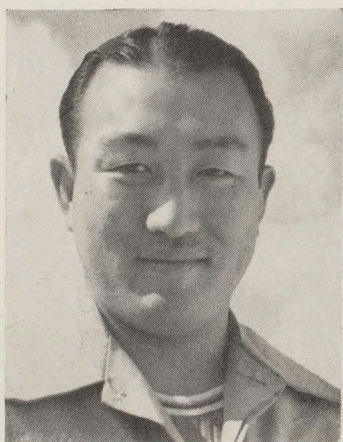

In the only game played with an out-of-camp team, that being Worland, the Eagles dropped a 3 to 2 contest which was played only five innings under a continuous down-pour of rain . . . The locals were held to but one hit, that being by George Yamamoto . . . The Warriors garnered five hits off the offerings of Pitcher George Iseri.

Tentative plans for a return game with Worland was in the making as we went to press.

Back to the American Way of Life...

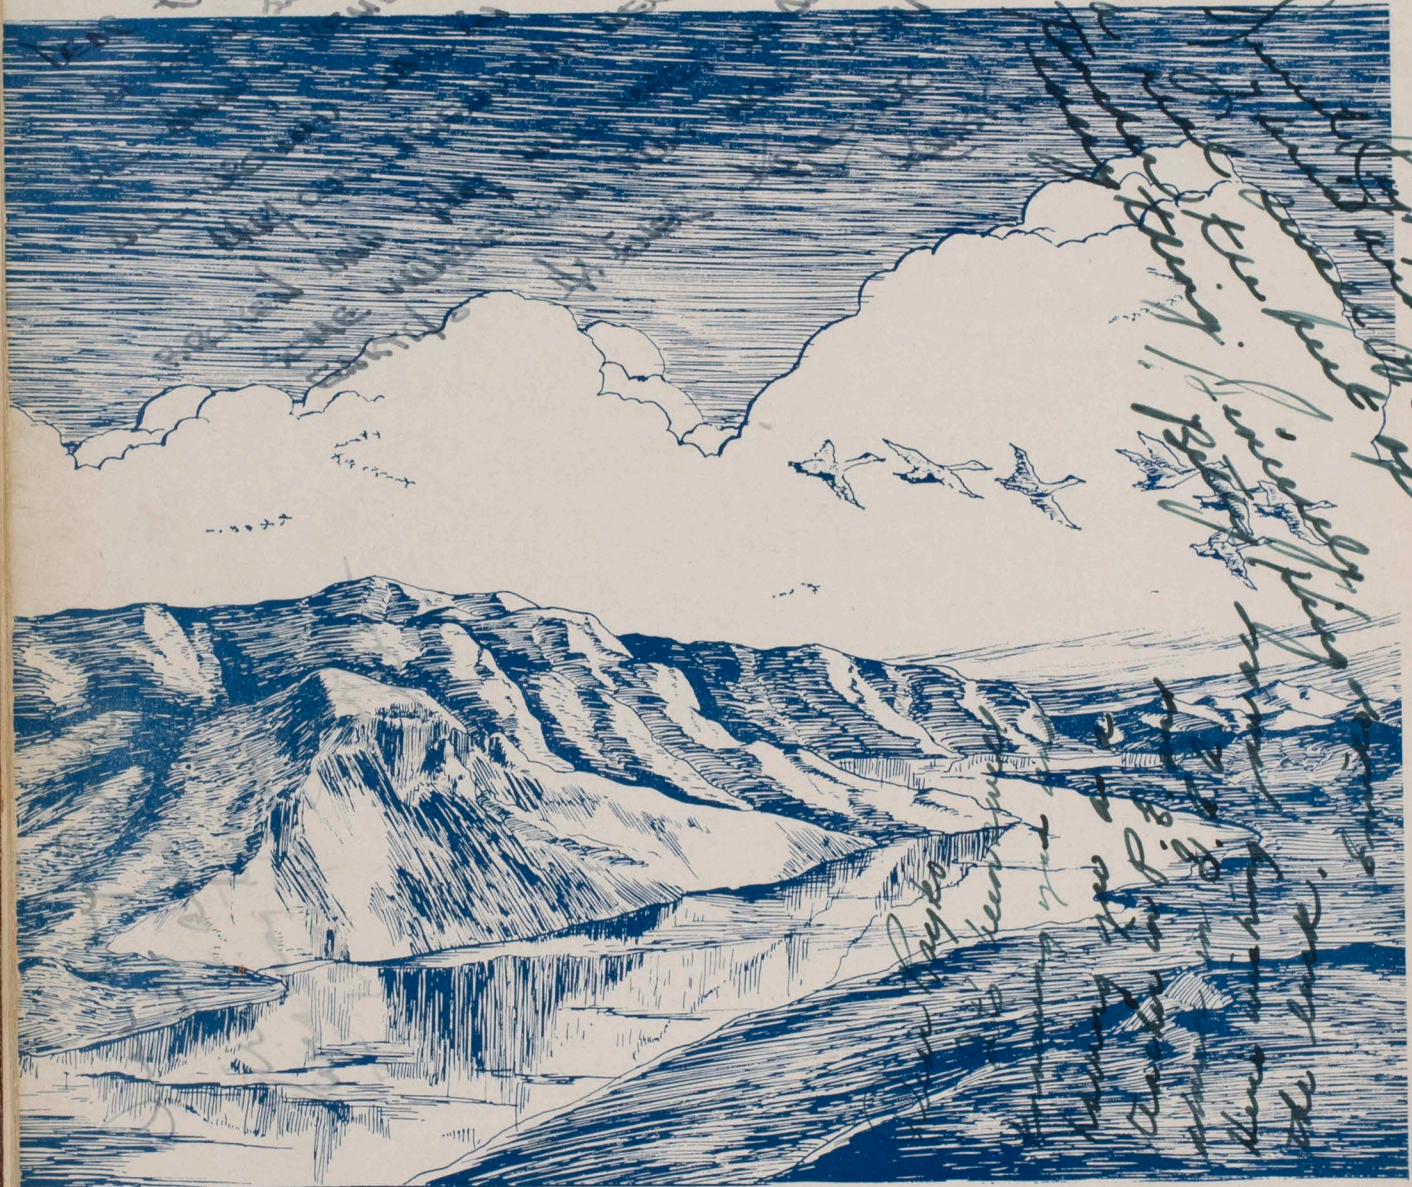

Deep in my heart there's an urge
To be on the move again.
My soul is as restless as the tumbleweed,
As rampant as the sea.

Precise formations of geese whistle overhead
Seeking new and better homes.

I feel a tugging at my heart,
A yearning for the life I led before—

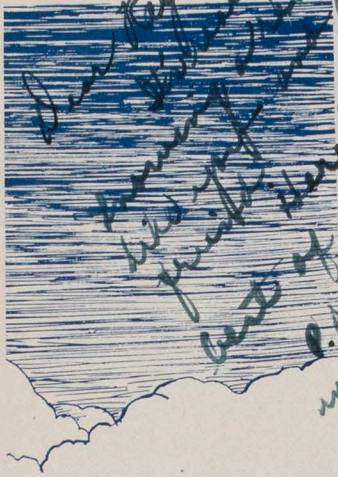

To stroll leisurely through a leafy park;
To rock and sway in a rumbling street car;
Or to stand on a bustling city corner
And watch the world go by.
To be lost in the crowd on Dollar Day,
Or park for a hour with a coke at the corner drug.
To lean on my hoe for a moment's rest—
Scan my fields through squinted, sweat-filled eyes—
And be proud of the work I've done.
To dash like a madman down the street
And barely catch the morning bus!

These, and a hundred thousand other things
 Bring melancholy—
 And I cry out for the good old days!
 But what is past and gone
 Cannot be restored by wishful thinking—

As the tide must recede as dawn draws nigh,
 As the sun must rise and set,
 As the Three Sisters must spin the Thread of Life,
 And as the Sands of Time must trickle through the Glass,
 I must fulfill my yearnings!
 Else henceforth live in a world of Shallows, miseries, and memories.
