

Your Spiritual Bouquet and kind expression of sympathy will always be held in grateful remembrance

Friends of George Moses Kida.

Mitsuka

Mitsuno

Emi

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,

Or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,

If so we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,

As any friend could say;

Perhaps you were not there at all,

Just thought of us that day,

Whatever you did to console our hearts,

We thank you so much whatever the part.

By the family of

Perhaps you sent a lovely card.

Or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a funeral spray.

If so we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words.

As any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all.

Just thought of us that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts.

We thank you so much whatever the part.

By the family of 11-19-98

GEORGE KIDA

Gorge Moses Kida died at his home, as he wished, in White Salmon on Nov. 9, 1998, at the age of 85.

Mr. Kida, a U.S. citizen, was born on Sept. 13, 1913, in the Snowden area, the only son of Kay (Miyaki) and Kenjiro Kida. He was raised on the family ranch and farm in Snowden. He attended dairy college, logged and worked in a sawmill. He then ran an equipment contracting business in Southern Oregon. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge.

Mr. Kida is survived by lots of relatives, all living in Japan, and close and dear friends Mitsuko Combs, Mitsuko Kawasaki, and Yuko Akabane. He leaves a lot of friends, whom he said he would meet again, but for now he wanted to say, "So long, be happy, and keep smiling."

Services for Mr. Kida were held Monday, Nov. 16, 1998, at 11 a.m. at Gardner Funeral Home in White Salmon. Interment was at White Salmon Cemetery.

Arrangements were handled by Gardner Funeral Home.