

Wednesday morning
July 1st well folks I will add A line as I did not get this off yesterday. I Recd yours yesterday. in Regard to the chickens, all said the hogs were eating the hens. I told him, if he wanted to bring them down we would Iress him one and us one thout it would help him out and give us A Treat too that I thant would be better than the hogs Feasting on them.
Well how are you all, I am not very strong but much better than I was,
it has been quite warm the last few days, how I wish I could be with you but I am glad I have such A good Place, and do hope this war soon gets over George write me often I live from day to day hoping to hear from you all kids dont get too fat ha ha.

well has all cut your Hay yet think it will be pretty Ripe he said he had his Hay down is it a late Season; be sure and write me often as you can, say has your mother got her quilts done yet. I have so many things up home wish I had some things down here to work at. Vickie has some Straw Berry Jam made. it is fine. but George dont work too hard in this Heat you are soft and so easy to get sun struck. tell me all about your work do you have to work up there? well kinda wonder how much Garde do you suppose you have isnt this awful on everyone.
Kay dont work too hard and take a good Rest so when you get home you can feel like something Love to all of you Grandma
