Dear Mrs. Kida,

Mrs. Pyatt addressed your letter improperly so I thought best to open it & send it in another envelope.

She has been quite restless the past week and becoming discontented with her surroundings. Other than that she is quite well - up and around most of the day and enjoys her meals.

yours truly,
Wilma Thornton

Dearest children Nov Nov 19 ~~th~~ Nov well it is cooler to day. I dont know how cold Sam Surley getting tired of this and expect you all are too it seems like the Old Fellow himself is too but he is too but it is too dark to see good well what do you children think how are you coming I cant imagine how things will look up home. if things arent taken care of it will wreck the whole whole thing say do you ~~thing~~ suppose the boys can play even this surley is trying to play even but wont the Poor Ratcher well sure be gone. it looks as if it might storm how I would love to see the place once more cant think we may never all meet again kida my side still keeps after me, but not so much as usual so Sam beginning to feel better will I will finish and hope you will come out Oh. With lots of Love Grandma
