long and boring. In recalling the ground for new chapters. a lot of instructed delegates from the various chapters, the matters of issue would be really limited. It is to this end that I focused a lot of PSWDC attention to the matter of Resolutions.

Resolutions, to the end that they will have been researched, defined and financially expressed to the chapters, I believe, would be the answer. As you know 'RESOLU-TION' is defined by Webster's as an act or process of resolving or reducing to simpler form; a formal expression of the opinion or will bate" system.

report of the Pacific Citizen to the 17th biennial National JACL Convention delegates will show a loss of $488.64 for 1960 and a gain of $292.33 for 1961, Dr. Roy Nishikawa, PC Board chairman, announced today.

Average circulation for the two years were 5,500 and 12,566, respectively. Advertising was 13 pct. and 23.9 pct., respectively.

PC with Membership began in 1961 to account for the increase in circulation. After chapters concluded their 1961 membership campaigns, circulation ranged between 13,000 and 14,000 from

PC Debate: Round 2

That the PC is a somewhat imperfect news medium for a somewhat imperfect organization in a somewhat imperfect society is not difficult to accept. Mr. Yasui has overlooked, however, one redeeming feature-the excellence of articles written by such outstanding columnists as Bill Hosokawa, Larry Tajiri and Mike Masaoka. Perhaps our Rocky Mountain brethren are surfeited with Hosokawa and Tajiri, both of whom write for the Denver Post. Personally I feel they provide intelectual stimulation and enjoyment that easily justify the PC tariff. The PC does work under adverse conditions, as Dr. Nishikawa points out, and the exercise of due patience is in order. My suggestion is to revert to the more readable tabloid size and sacrifice more of, sounds of Tokyo, udon vendor's whistle, koto strumming, the fourth | CONVENTION session of the culture series was introduced this past week.

A panel of Dr. James P. Mc-Cormick, moderator; Dr. Mayer-Oakes, Dwight Wilson, Eleanor Lee of the International Institute, Mrs. Kazumi Mita and Mrs. Kim Malecki, JACL members, presented their comments on "The Contemporary Scene in Japan.

Dr. Mayer-Oakes, former Fulbright Research professor Tokyo University, fascinated the audience with myriads of sounds of far-away Tokyo. He pointed out the fact that contrary to popular opinion, Japan's experience with democracy goes back 72 years.

The emancipates status of the women of Japan was discussed by Miss Lee. Wilson spoke on the financial and memberships in the 1000 Club for political aspects of local and na the first half of May as follows: tional government. Mrs. Mita compared her experiences in prewar, wartime and postwar Japan. The soldier bride's experiences in Japan and the U.S.

were ably presented by Mrs. Kim Malecki. Dr. McCormick's comments provided a fitting conclusion to the work of the panel. "Japan is strategic position in the Far East and our only strong, loyal anchor in the Pacific. We have confidence on this nation. Japan is of crucia importance and it behooves all of us to understand all we can o these people. They recognize the basic element of a democracy, the integrity of a family as a unit." Atmosphere was provided by displays of yukata, bonsai, and Japanese books and pictures.
